discuss latest research trends ideas and innovation in the field of communication language education psychology and social sciences The conference is aimed to provide a platform for young researchers as well as to support and encourage other researchers to present their research to network within the international community of researchers and to share and seek the insight and advice of successful senior researchers all over the world during the conference The Voice of the Bridegroom Benjamin A. Roberts,2021-02-02 Preaching is a relational act This book explores the relationship between the preacher and the assembly as a spousal relationship Written by a parish pastor with a doctorate in preaching and rooted in the Roman Catholic notion of the priest as bridegroom of the church this work examines characteristics of the spousal relationship between husband and wife and then provides an analysis of the ministerial priesthood through this nuptial lens This nuptial reflection on the ministerial priesthood is then applied to preaching This book presents a nuptial hermeneutic or vision for preaching and the implications of this vision for the assembly the preacher the homily and the homiletical method The appendices include a one page strategy for preaching summarizing the homiletical method a rubric for homily evaluation by members of the assembly and two sample homilies The Function of Narrative Comments in the Gospel of John David A. Lamb,2024-12-15 The Function of Narrative Comments in the Gospel of John is a comprehensive study of a major feature of the Fourth Gospel It provides a clear and accessible overview of scholarship in this field as well as providing fresh insights from contemporary literary and linguistic theories Emotion in Discourse J. Lachlan Mackenzie,Laura Alba-Juez,2019-03-15 Interest in human emotion no longer equates to unscientific speculation 21st century humanities scholars are paying serious attention to our capacity to express emotions and giving rigorous explanations of affect in language We are unquestionably witnessing an emotional turn not only in linguistics but also in other fields of scientific research Emotion in Discourse follows from and reflects on this scholarly awakening to the world of emotion and in particular to its intricate relationship with human language The book presents both the state of the art and the latest research in an effort to unravel the various workings of the expression of emotion in discourse It takes an interdisciplinary approach for emotion is a multifarious phenomenon whose functions in language are enlightened by such other disciplines as psychology neurology or communication studies The volume shows not only how emotion manifests at different linguistic levels but also how it relates to aspects like linguistic appraisal emotional intelligence or humor as well as covering its occurrence in various genres including scientific discourse As such the book contributes to an emerging interdisciplinary field which could be labeled emotionology transcending previous linguistic work and providing an updated characterization of how emotion functions in human discourse Developing Writers in Higher Education Anne Ruggles Gere,2019-01-02 For undergraduates following any course of study it is essential to develop the ability to write effectively Yet the processes by which students become more capable and ready to meet the challenges of writing for employers the wider public and their own purposes remain largely invisible Developing Writers in Higher Education shows how learning to write for various purposes in multiple disciplines leads college students to new levels of competence This volume draws on an in depth study of the writing and experiences of 169 University of Michigan undergraduates using statistical analysis of 322 surveys qualitative analysis of 131 interviews use of corpus linguistics on 94 electronic portfolios and 2 406 pieces of student writing and case studies of individual students to trace the multiple paths taken by student writers Topics include student writers interaction with feedback perceptions of genre the role of disciplinary writing generality and certainty in student writing students concepts of voice and style students understanding of multimodal and digital writing high school s influence on college writers and writing development after college The digital edition offers samples of student writing electronic portfolios produced by student writers transcripts of interviews with students and explanations of some of the analysis conducted by the contributors This is an important book for researchers and graduate students in multiple fields Those in writing studies get an overview of other longitudinal studies as well as key questions currently circulating For linguists it demonstrates how corpus linguistics can inform writing studies Scholars in higher education will gain a new perspective on college student development The book also adds to current understandings of sociocultural theories of literacy and offers prospective teachers insights into how students learn to write Finally for high school teachers this volume will answer questions about college writing Companion Website Click here to access the Developing Writers project and its findings at the interactive companion website Project Data Access the data from the project through this tutorial Dialogicity in Written Specialised Genres Luz Gil-Salom,Carmen Soler-Monreal,2014-07-15 Dialogicity in Written Specialised Genres analyses how human beings intentionally establish a network of relations that contribute to the construction of discourse in different genres in academic promotional and professional domains in English Spanish and Italian The chapters in the present volume investigate individual voices both those assumed by the writer and those attributed to others and how they act interpersonally and become explicit in the discourse From a number of different research approaches contributing authors focus on various textual components self mention impersonation attribution markers engagement markers attitude markers boosters hedges reporting verbs politeness strategies and citations The collection is unusual in that it addresses these issues not only from the perspective of English but also from that of Spanish and Italian It thus represents a refreshing reassessment of the contrastive dimension in the study of voice and dialogic relations taking into consideration language specialised fields and genre The volume will appeal to researchers interested in language as multidimensional dialogue particularly with regard to different written specialised texts from different linguistic backgrounds Novice writers may also find it of help in order to attain a greater understanding of the dialogic nature of writing Engagement in Professional Genres Carmen Sancho Guinda,2019-04-24 Engagement has turned essential in today s communication as professional communities are becoming more specialised and transient and their audiences more diverse Promotionalism and competitiveness in addition increasingly pervade human activity and thus engaging readers listeners and viewers to attract and persuade them is part of the know how of almost every profession The eighteen chapters in this book written by well known discourse analysts from different nationalities and research backgrounds and with various interests and understandings of communicative engagement guide us through a discovery of perspectives and strategies across work settings and practices genres semiotic modes discourses disciplines and theoretical frameworks and methods They build a mosaic that leads to a broad picture of meta discursive engagement as di stance and raises current issues challenges and future research directions Linguistics and Language Behavior Abstracts ,2009-04 Academic Evaluation Ken Hyland,Giuliana Diani,2009-08-12 Summary from OCLC Academic criticism can be highly fraught and threatening potentially wounding to the reviewed author and disruptive to the discipline but it occurs routinely in review genres This book explores how academics publically evaluate each others work Focusing on blurbs book reviews review articles and literature reviews the international contributors to the volume show how writers manage to critically engage with others ideas argue their own viewpoints and establish academic credibility while simultaneously navigating these risky interactions Pragmatics ,2012 Studies in the Literary Imagination ,2019 MLA International Bibliography of Books and Articles on the Modern Languages and Literatures ,2006 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2005 El diálogo oral en el mundo hispanohablante Lars Fant,Anamaria Harvey,2011 Partiendo de una concepci n dial gica del lenguaje esta colecci n de once trabajos dedicados al estudio del discurso oral en espa ol ofrece a analistas del discurso estudiosos de la interacci n verbal y estudiantes universitarios de estas disciplinas un conjunto de contribuciones te ricas y aplicadas representativas del estado de la cuesti n y de sus desarrollos m s recientes En su an lisis de materiales institucionales y coloquiales los autores proponen nuevos enfoques te ricos y perspectivas anal ticas al dar cuenta del valor de la oralidad como manifestaci n sociocultural en una variedad de contextos Recoge trabajos de 15 acad micos provenientes de siete pa ses Mar a Bernal Antonio Briz Luis Cort s Lars Fant Irene Fonte Fanny Forsberg Carmen Garc a Ana Mar a Harvey Annette Myre J rgensen Per Linell Estrella Montolio Carlos Olave Marcela Oyanedel Anna Brita Stenstr m y Rodney Williamson Page 4 de la couverture Jezik in slovstvo ,2007 Book of Readings: 20th-23rd November, 2005 ,2005* British Education Index ,2005 Disciplinary Discourses Ken Hyland,2000 Applied Linguistics and Language Study General Editor Christopher N Candlin Chair Professor of Applied Linguistics Centre for English Language Education Communication Research Department of English City University of Hong Kong Hong Kong Since it was first established in the 1970 s the Applied Linguistics and Language Study series has become a major force in the study of practical problems in human communication and language education Drawing extensively on empirical research and theoretical work in linguistics sociology psychology and education the series explores key issues in language acquisition and language use Disciplinary Discourses Social Interactions in Academic Writing presents a series of innovative studies focusing on eight disciplines and a variety of key genres to examine the relationships between the cultures of academic communities and their discoursal practices It proposes a framework to account for the interactions between writers and their readers in published academic writing draws clear teaching suggestions and offers detailed methodological principles and suggestions to support further research Drawing on discourse analysis corpus linguistics and the voices of professional insiders Ken Hyland explores how academics use language to organise their professional lives carry out intellectual tasks and reach agreement on what will count as knowledge Through its focus on the features of key genres this book shows what close textual analyses can reveal about the social practices and institutional ideologies of different academic communities and at the same time provides a clear basis for further research The theoretical and descriptive accounts have strong practical implications for the understanding of academic writing and disciplinary communities It will therefore be of great interest to teachers and students of academic writing English for Specific Purposes and discourse analysis more generally Ken Hyland is an Associate Professor in the Department of English City University of Hong Kong
