Identity, Narrative and Metaphor E. L'Hôte,2014-11-05 This book shows that the discourse of the Labour party 1994 2007 revolving around three key concepts of identity narrative and metaphor not only reflected new Labour s policy and organisational changes but that it was also an essential part of its successful strategies of renovation and of power legitimation

Affectionate Authorities Philip Grace,2016-03-16 In one of his sermons the medieval preacher Bernardino of Siena listed seven fathers to whom one owed obedience God one s natural father godfather confessor benefactor a government official and any elderly man This book seeks to answer the question of why medieval Europeans saw the need for so many fathers Why was fatherhood so appealing as a metaphor Situated at the intersection of social and cultural history the study draws upon a variety of late medieval and early modern sources including witness depositions personal letters and pedagogical treatises from the city of Basel Switzerland It focuses on how people from different walks of life invoked ideas about fatherhood in the pursuit of various goals not only the ideological agendas of scholarly elites but also the more pragmatic problems of closing a business deal claiming an inheritance or choosing sides in a fistfight before turning to what these ideas reveal about fatherhood on the ground The book argues that it was precisely fatherhood s basis in lived experience that gave it a familiar shape in the several roles that fathers played including provision affection disciplinary authority and education The most potent rhetorical aspect of fatherhood however was not as a static image or shape but rather the possibility of invoking connections between one role and another The most potent connection between roles was the idea that fathers were affectionate authorities combining power over subordinates with desire for their well being Tracing the connections and contradictions of these identities this study provides a nuanced view of concepts of fatherhood on the eve of the Reformation
