The Australian airline industry and the case of OzJet Marco Hierling,2007-06-22 Seminar paper from the year 2007 in the subject Business economics Business Management Corporate Governance grade 1 3 86% The University of Sydney language English abstract This case study provides an overview of the Australian airline industry and its competitors with a focus on the question why OzJet failed The first chapter will give an insight on the main task and on the case study structure concentrating on a brief outline of OzJet and the Australian airline industry In chapter two the external environment OzJet had to face is examined including the analysis of the main trends and its competitive intelligence through scanning and monitoring Furthermore it presents a survey of the environment using Porters five forces completing with a brief conclusion of the threats and opportunities in the Australian airline industry Chapter three gives information of OzJet s internal environment from a resource based view that examines the collection of its tangible and intangible resources as well as its organizational capabilities shaping OzJet s competitive position This chapter ends with a short conclusion about OzJet s strengths and weaknesses Finally it is discussed why OzJet failed and a strategic recommendation is given about the likelihood of a third airline being successful in the Australian airline industry OzJet started its business in November 2005 with the strategy to enter the Australian business traveller market on the Sydney Melbourne trunk route It had to compete with three other airlines Qantas Jetstar and Virgin Blue OzJet s core capability was to provide a top notch service at a fully flexible economy price However the focus on customer service was not able to meet the needs of the targeted market

Business class travellers were loyal to Qantas offering a much higher flight frequency and loyalty program for this not so price sensitive market segment In the end OzJet had neither the cost structure using old plains nor the reputation and financial background to consist against its strong competitors As a result despite the high quality of its services the airline OzJet couldn t find its niche and made a double digit million loss about 10 million after 4 months It ceased all scheduled operations on 12th March 2006 and now operates as a private charter company

Understanding Strategic Management Anthony E. Henry, Understanding Strategic Management Anthony E. Henry,2018 Understanding Strategic Management is the ideal introduction to strategy for students in one semester courses who require an informative yet practical approach The book s four part structure defines the concept of strategy before using the overarching strategic framework of analysis formulation and implementation to show how strategy can be used to develop a sustainable competitive advantage in business Making use of chapter maps and learning objectives to guide students through the complexities of the subject the author conveys the realities of strategic management through a diverse selection of international and contemporary examples Strategy in Focus boxes use examples from popular media to show how strategic management issues appear in the headlines we read every day A longer integrated Case Example closes every chapter tying in multiple strategic challenges that affect businesses of all kinds Review and discussion questions then encourage students to be critical of the material and to evaluate its strengths and weaknesses Students may extend their learning with additional material available in the online resources Written by the author Extension Material is broken up by chapter Unique Working through Strategy materials give students opportunities to practice essential techniques such as PEST analysis and scenario planning ONLINE RESOURCES For students Internet exercises Glossary Extension Material Working through Strategy Multiple choice questions Additional recommended resources For lecturers Test bank Further case material Answers to discussion questions PowerPoint slides Figures and tables from the book Lufthansa in Its Competitive Environment Martin Albers,2008-06 Seminar paper from the year 2007 in the subject Business economics Business Management Corporate Governance grade 2 1 University of Sunderland University of Sunderland course Contemporary Management 27 entries in the bibliography language English abstract After five years of vast losses especially for the IATA Carrier which are all scheduled airlines 2007 will be a successful year for the airline industry with a forecasted profit of 8 5 billion The early 21st century marked the industry with high losses and consolidation Due to the reason that the industry sector highly depends on the external environment the terrorist attacks of September 11th 2001 magnified by the weak economic conditions in many major countries and more recently the Iraq War and SARS epidemic have made the last five years unhappy ones especially for most of the schedules airlines In addition to that the liberalisation of the European aviation market enabled low cost airlines to reshape the competitive environment and to make significant impacts in the world s domestic passenger markets which have previously been largely controlled by full service carriers The overall market situation is dominated by increasing pressure on cost and productiveness The global market trend forces a high company concentration that strengthens market positions Lufthansa Germany s national carrier was faced like all other national carriers with the above mentioned problems and had to find its way out of the crisis The central question of this report is With which tools did Lufthansa solve these problems And are these tools sufficient to be competitive for future developments This report paper is dealing with the developments in airline business illustrated with the example of Germany s national carrier the Lufthansa AG and the enormous company restructuring toward an ideal global player in a highly competitive environment By analysing the internal and external influences p

Air Asia: Penetrating into the South African Airline Industry Weng Marc Lim,2012-03-13 Research Paper undergraduate from the year 2009 in the subject Business economics Offline Marketing and Online Marketing grade High Distinction Monash University Malaysia Sunway Campus course Strategic Management language English abstract Air Asia is a low cost carrier based in Kuala Lumpur Malaysia which flies to over 66 successfully penetrated destinations in 18 countries worldwide Nevertheless this innovative organisation continuously seeks new potential markets for its investment However not all countries are an attractive prospect for a new investment This book presents an analysis on the attractiveness of the South African airline industry along with Air Asia s current internal states and strategies in an attempt to rationalise the viability of an investment decision into the state The data collected entails from secondary sources ranging from academic journal articles organisational websites and reports online newspapers to various databases The main findings includes a favourable yet challenging immediate and macroeconomic environment conditions in South Africa supporting internal strengths that were aligned with most key success factors for the investment plan taking into account certain drawbacks identified and a well positioned business level and corporate level strategy to take on a new investment in the state It is concluded that the South African airline industry is a viable market in which Air Asia is able to weather those obstacles and achieve great success Nonetheless Air Asia is recommended to play safe and currently penetrate the industry on a smaller scale before operating in a larger scale

Analysis of Marketing Environment of Virgin Australia Yasir Farabi,2012-07-06 Seminar paper from the year 2012 in the subject Business economics Offline Marketing and Online Marketing University of New England course Marketing Management language English abstract The purpose of this report is to analyse the current market environment of Australian airline industry in which Virgin Australia operates Throughout the last decade the domestic airline industry in Australia is characterised by relatively flat growth low profit margins and financial pressure and stiff competition High entry barrier exists in the industry with soaring competition among the existing players Even though the threat of substitutes is low the overall situation is further worsened by high buyer and supplier bargaining power Qantas Jetstar and Tiger Airways are the three major players of the industry with Virgin Australia being the second largest domestic airline While Qantas focuses its strategy towards high end business class and corporate customers Jetstar and Virgin compete for the rest of the market segments Except Tiger Airways all three companies have shown positive financial performance over their operating cycles Virgin Australia has strong brand value and image because of its innovative ideas and creative thinking It operates a rapidly growing fleet primarily consists of Boeings and Airbuses The low average fleet age helps the company to reduce maintenance cost of the aircrafts Financial performance of the company was not so promising in the year 2011 because of rising fuel price high value of Australian dollar and environmental disaster However the company has been successful over the past years and future outlook is promising However the company has failed to attract corporate customers because of over reliance on leisure market Moreover because of fuel market volatility high exchange rate of Australian dollar and environmental disaster the company has not been financially thriving in the past years With intensified competition in an unfavourable environment characterized by high fuel price rising environmental concerns and high bargaining power of the suppliers Virgin Australia will find it hard to keep their game faces on in the days to come With the recovery of economy the company s financial performance is expected to improve in the years to come and with the opportunities that present itself within the operating environment there is a sign of light at the end of the tunnel

An Analysis of Ryanair's Corporate Strategy Miriam Mennen,2010 Essay from the year 2005 in the subject Business economics Marketing Corporate Communication CRM Market Research Social Media grade 72 % A University of Sunderland course Global Corporate Strategy language English abstract Ryanair was founded in 1985 as a family business that originally provided full service conventional scheduled airline services between Ireland and the UK The airline started to compete within the confines of the existing industry by trying to steal customers from their rivals especially the state monopoly carrier Air Lingus outlined by Chan Kim and Ren e Mauborgne 2004 as Bloody or Red Ocean Strategy Ryanair seemed to follow a me too strategy according to Osborne K 2005 they tried to be all things to all people Even they started restructuring their strategy was not enough differentiated and their cost advantage was too low to be profitable Ryanair then created a competitive advantage through the alignment of the three components of business systems 1 Creating superior value for their customers outside perspective 2 Supplying their superior value adding activities in an effective and efficient manner which jointly form the Value Chain 3 Possessing over the resource base required to perform the value adding activities inside perspective According to Porter 1987 corporate strategy is what makes the corporate whole add up to more than the sum of its business unit parts It is seen to be concerned with the overall purpose and scope of the organisation and to meet the expectations of major stakeholders All aspects of Ryanair s value chain are important to the company and their shareholders as Ryanair s decisions add value to both The following report outlines the three perspectives of shaping Ryanair s business system The value creation dimension of Ryanair s business model will be outlined considering the theories of Porter and the more recent authors Kim and Mauborgne 2004 Further the 1 Japan Airlines Bankruptcy Matthias Nuoffer,2010-12-27 Seminar paper from the year 2010 in the subject Business economics Operations Research grade 1 0 Northumbria University language
