

New Project Proposal for NGOs on Improving Maternal and Child Health

Want to improve the health status of women and children? Are you a Non governmental organization looking for a sample proposal based on maternal and child health? This proposal will surely help you. The proposed project 'Improving Maternal and Child Health' aims to enhance the overall health of women and children through improved access to reproductive and child health.

There is a need to increase the access of women to better healthcare and also enhance their awareness to improve both maternal and child health. This proposal seeks to improve maternal and child health through a three-year-long integrated project. The project aims to improve the health status of women and children through improved access to reproductive and child health

Project background

810 women die every day from preventable causes related to pregnancy and childbirth (WHO, 2017). According to various sources, the direct causes of maternal deaths include excessive blood loss, infection, high blood pressure, unsafe abortion, and obstructed labor, and the indirect causes include anemia, malaria, and heart disease. The last two decades have witnessed a significant reduction in newborn and maternal deaths; the newborn mortality was halved from 37 to 18%, between 1990 and 2020, while the global maternal mortality rate was reduced by nearly 38% between 2000 to 2017. Despite all the advances and progress made towards reducing maternal and infant mortality, a large number of deaths occur every day, especially in low-income countries, where the risk associated with maternal death is almost 130 times higher than that in a high-income country. The graph below shows the global maternal deaths between 2000 and 2017 in the different regions. It can be seen that almost two-thirds of maternal deaths occurred in Sub-Saharan
