Reunion In Barsaloi:

Reunion in Barsaloi Corinne Hofmann, 2006 In a sequel to her international bestseller The White Masai Corinne Hofmann continues her personal account of a white European woman in love with a Masai tribesman in remote Kenya Fourteen years after fleeing with her baby daughter Corinne returned to Kenya in the summer of 2004 to reunite with Lketinga and his family in their village Barsaloi Nervous and uncertain as to how he would react on seeing her again she found to her relief that she was welcomed unreservedly by all who remembered her Lketinga who still thought of her as his number one wife his brother James now a schoolteacher and especially Lketinga's mother who had looked after Corinne with such care all those years before

Great Expectations Jonathan Skinner, Dimitrios Theodossopoulos, 2011-10-01 The negotiation of expectations in tourism is a complex and dynamic process one that is central to the imagination of cultural difference Expectations not only affect the lives and experiences of tourists but also their hosts and play an important part in the success or failure of the overall tourism experience It is for this reason the authors argue that special attention should be given to how expectations constitute and sustain tourism The case studies presented here explore what fuels the desires to visit particular places to what degree expectations inform the experience of the place and the frequent disjunctions between tourist expectations and experiences Careful attention is paid to how the imagination of the visitor inspires the imagination of the host and vice versa how tourists and host communities actively imagine re imagine and shape each other's lives This realization has profound consequences not solely for academic analysis but for all those who participate in and work within the tourism industry

Ethno-erotic Economies George Paul Meiu, 2017-10-10 Ethno erotic Economies explores a fascinating case of tourism focused on sex and culture in coastal Kenya where young men deploy stereotypes of African warriors to help them establish transactional sexual relationships with European women In bars and on beaches young men deliberately cultivate their images as sexually potent African men to attract women sometimes for a night in other cases for long term relationships George Paul Meiu uses his deep familiarity with the communities these men come from to explore the long term effects of markets of ethnic culture and sexuality on a wide range of aspects of life in rural Kenya including kinship ritual gender intimate affection and conceptions of aging What happens to these communities when young men return with such surprising wealth And how do they use it to improve their social standing locally By answering these questions Ethno erotic Economies offers a complex look at how intimacy and ethnicity come together to shape the pathways of global and local trade in the postcolonial world
