Geographies of Girlhood in US Latina Writing Andrea Fernández-García,2019-12-20 This book is an in depth study of Latina girls portrayed in five coming of age narratives by using spaces and places as hermeneutical tools The texts under study here are Julia Alvarez s Return to Sender 2009 Norma E Cant s Can cula Snapshots of a Girlhood en la Frontera 1995 Mary Helen Ponce s Hoyt Street An Autobiography 1993 and Esmeralda Santiago s When I Was Puerto Rican 1993 and Almost a Woman 1998 Unlike most representations of Latina girls which are characterized by cultural inaccuracies tropes of exoticism and a tendency to associate the host society with modernity and their girls cultures of origin with backwardness and oppression these texts contribute to reimagining the social differently from what the dominant imagery offers By illustrating the vexing phenomena the characters have to negotiate on a daily basis such as racism sexism and displacement these narratives open avenues for a critical exploration of the legacies of colonial modernity This book therefore not only enables an analysis of how the girls development is shaped by these structures of power but also shows how such legacies are reversed as the characters negotiate their identities It breaks with the longstanding characterization of young people and especially Latina girls as voiceless and deprived of agency showing readers that this youth group also has say in controlling their lifeworlds
