Texaco Patrick Chamoiseau:

Texaco Patrick Chamoiseau, 1998-02-24 Chamoiseau is a writer who has the sophistication of the modern novelist and it is from that position as an heir of Joyce and Kafka that he holds out his hand to the oral prehistory of literature Milan Kundera Of black Martinican provenance Patrick Chamoiseau gives us Texaco winner of the Prix Goncourt France's most prestigious literary prize an international literary achievement tracing one hundred and fifty years of post slavery Caribbean history a novel that is as much about self affirmation engendered by memory as it is about a quest for the adequacy of its own form In a narrative composed of short sequences each recounting episodes or developments of moment and interspersed with extracts from fictive notebooks and from statements by an urban planner Marie Sophie Laborieux the saucy aging daughter of a slave enfranchised by his master tells the story of the tormented foundation of her people's identity The shantytown established by Marie Sophie is menaced from without by hostile landowners and from within by the volatility of its own provisional state Hers is a brilliant polyphonic rendering of individual stories informed by rhythmic orality and subversive humor that shape a collective experience A joyous affirmation of literature that brings to mind Boccaccio La Fontaine Lewis Carroll Montaigne Rabelais and Joyce Texaco is a work of rare power and ambition a masterpiece Texaco Patrick Chamoiseau, 1997 Set in the Caribbean this novel tells the story of a grim poverty stricken shanty town named after the nearby oil depot on the edge of Fort de France the capital of Martinique Patrick Chamoiseau is the author of Solibo Magnifique The book won the Prix Goncourt Discussion Notes on Patrick Chamoiseau's Texaco Patricia Schroor, 1999

The Articulation of the Opaque in Patrick Chamoiseau's Texaco Myles O'Byrne, 2002 Subject Matters Paul Gifford, Johnnie Gratton, 2000 What can we currently make of the subject Under the sway of structuralism and poststructuralism critical thinking took a distinctly negative turn effectively disqualifying any form of subjectivity as a reference point in discussions of textual or literary meaning Since the mid 1970s however throughout the human sciences human agency has been restored as both a methodological principle and an ethical value a phenomenon broadly designated as the return of the subject Yet the returning subject bears the traces of its problematization The present collection of essays explores the ways in which the subject now matters both in principle and in the variety of critical approaches in authorizes Essays which are both literary and theoretical in character cover authors texts and issues in French literature from Descartes to the present A wide range of types of writing is examined from established forms such as the novel to relatively marginal and generically unsystematized discursive practices such as automatic writing and the rite de passage Though it shuns closure in a matter which remains ultimately elusive this book offers some account of the types of answer which remain open and of those we have learned to leave behind Texaco Patrick Chamoiseau, 1993 Texaco quartier de Fort de France refuge de tous les dmunis doit imposer son droit l existence L me de sa lutte c est Marie Sophie Laborieux fille d Esternome l ancien esclave Par la magie d une langue opulente imagine le lecteur acc de un monde extraordinairement vivant attachant color

Violence in Caribbean Literature Véronique Maisier,2014-12-11 Violence in Caribbean Literature Stories of Stones and Blood this book looks at the scene of the throwing of a stone found in five novels and uses it as a starting point to an examination of the turmoil of history in the Caribbean the colonial education imposed on Caribbean populations the gendered relations that exist today in the Caribbean region the political status and aspirations of Caribbean nations and the psychological impact of colonization on Caribbean minds The trope of the stone and the analysis of the violence it delivers provide the thread that conducts the linked readings of these novels written by Dominican Jean Rhys Trinidadian Merle Hodge Guadeloupean Gis le Pineau Martinican Patrick Chamoiseau and Jamaican American Michelle Cliff The analytical and critical readings of these writers novels complement each other and draw out their commonalities echoes and differences while the juxtaposition of Anglophone and Francophone novels from different Caribbean nations contributes to a polyphonic understanding of the region While the book offers diversity in the range of countries and languages represented and in the interdisciplinarity of the scholarly fields that intersect in its cultural discussions it maintains its coherence by the unifying theme of violence and its representations in Caribbean literature From Créolité to Diversalité Lorna Milne,2000

Reordering of Culture Alvina Roberta Ruprecht,Cecilia Taiana,1995 Political economic and social barriers among Latin America the Caribbean and Canada are giving way to global forces and the global dreams they inspire This collection of original articles and essays examines popular culture literature theatre belief systems indigenous practices and questions of identity exile and alienation The interconnectedness and distinction of cultural production throughout the Americas transplanted interests the mediation of African and European influences and the expression of shifting identities all reflect the development of a new American neighbourhood Heroic Figures in Patrick Chamoiseau's Texaco and Maryse Condé's Traversée de la Mangrove Chelvica Ariyanayagam,2003 Spatial Boundaries, Abounding Spaces Mohit

Chandna,2021-06-30 Colonialism advanced its project of territorial expansion by changing the very meaning of borders and space The colonial project scripted a unipolar spatial discourse that saw the colonies as an extension of European borders In his monograph Mohit Chandna engages with narrations of spatial conflicts in French and Francophone literature and film from the nineteenth to the early twenty first century In literary works by Jules Verne Ananda Devi and Patrick Chamoiseau and film by Michael Haneke Chandna analyzes the depiction of ever changing borders and spatial grammar within the colonial project In so doing he also examines the ongoing resistance to the spatial legacies of colonial practices that act as omnipresent enforcers of colonial borders Literature and film become sites that register colonial spatial paradigms and advance competing narratives that fracture the dominance of these borders Through its analyses Spatial Boundaries Abounding Spaces shows that colonialism is not a finished project relegated to our past Colonialism is present in the here and now and exercises its power through the borders that define us Texaco Patrick Chamoiseau,2013-09-16T00:00:00+02:00 Une vieille femme c presse tr s grande tr s maigre avec un visage grave solennel et
