This second edition includes five new chapters, and the remaining chapters have been thoroughly revised and updated to give a clear picture of the current state of applied linguistics.

Hidden Wars Sara E. Davies, Jacqui True, 2024 Sexual and gender based violence SGBV has always been a part of warfare In Asia testimonies of egregious rape and sexual violence extend back to the Rape of Nanjing to the experience of the Korean comfort women in World War II and to forced marriages and sexual slavery during the Cambodian genocide The past two decades have yielded crucial new insights about SGBV but scholars and researchers still struggle to explain why and when this violence occurs A major problem is that incidences of SGBV are vastly underreported reliable data is especially scarce in Asia where demographic and health surveys are infrequent and national reporting systems are underdeveloped relative to other parts of the globe Asia also has some of the most protracted conflicts in the world but the complexity of subnational conflicts in Asia often masks the gendered dimensions of violence In Hidden Wars Sara E Davies and Jacqui True examine the relationship between reports of SGBV and structural gender inequality in three conflict affected societies in Asia Burma the Philippines and Sri Lanka Based on extensive field research and an original dataset on conflict related SGBV Davies and True show how reporting is significantly constrained by a variety of factors including normalized gendered violence as well as political dynamics affecting local civil society humanitarian and international organizations They address the real world limitations of data collection and argue that these constraints reinforce a culture of silence and impunity that perpetuates SGBV and permits governments to abrogate their responsibility for this violence Hidden Wars breaks new methodological ground in showing that what we know about SGBV can be understood fully only if the politicized context of reporting SGBV and data collection is taken into consideration

Around Town Michael Ockenden,Timothy Jones,1982 Situational Dialogues ,1989 A Wiser Century? Thomas Giegerich,2009 The Hague Peace Conferences of 1899 and 1907 dealt with three interlinked topics the peaceful settlement of disputes including by arbitration the restriction of armaments and military budgets the laws of war The first two were aimed at preventing the outbreak of war not by restricting the jus ad bellum in its substance but by inducing states not to use their continuing war power and to limit the growth of their war machinery The third topic was concerned with containing the brutality of war where its prevention had failed Whereas the Conferences succeeded in codifying the laws of war they made less progress with regard to the peaceful settlement of disputes and failed on limiting armaments Worst of all they could not prevent the outbreak of World War I This volume uses the occasion of the 100th anniversary of the Second Hague Peace Conference to follow up on the then concerns and objectives looking at the Hague legacy through the lens of today s problems The 27 contributions treat the most pressing recent issues of non proliferation and disarmament international humanitarian law and judicial dispute settlement Three questions run like a thread through this volume 1 In which areas have the promises of 1899 and 1907 remained unfulfilled and why 2 In which areas has there been progress in which other areas perhaps regression 3 What are our prospects and how can we international lawyers help shaping a promising future in respect of the prevention and containment of war Whereas the empire of law in international relations and the age of international justice which were envisaged in the Convention for the Pacific Settlement of International Disputes of 1899 1907 have not yet arrived on the global level we Europeans have made considerable progress since 1945 But in the age of globalization Europe cannot for long remain an Isle of the Blest Together with the other peoples of the United Nations we must therefore strive toward fulfilling the promises of the UN Charter and the Universal Declaration of Human Rights peace justice freedom and prosperity for everyone and all nations large and small Only then can wars be prevented
