

A Sleeping Black Boy Poem Analysis

Poem Summary

The poem poignantly portrays a neglected young boy lying face down on the grass beside a bustling city street. His addiction to sniffing glue is evident, and his desperate need for help is symbolized by the overpowering smell emanating from his body. As city life continues around him, the only comfort he finds is in the ambient sounds of nearby water and passing traffic, which serve as a stark contrast to the soothing lullaby a child at home might hear. Despite the visible signs of his distress, passersby choose to ignore him, looking away to avoid confronting his plight. The poem forebodes a grim future for the boy, suggesting he may eventually succumb to his addictions.

Poem

He lay flat, face deep into green grass, the huge jacket covered his head, the heat onto his ears;
he is dirty,
the dirt screams from his flesh like a rotten smell.
He is pinned down by the throbbing footsteps passing by, lullaby is the hiss of the water from the pond and the roaring steel river; and the eyes of adults passing by dart around like bubbles of boiling water.
This small boy will die one day, his lips stuck together, glued by the glue he smokes.

The Temple Sleep of the Rich Young Ruler Edward Reaugh Smith, 2011-11 Who wrote the Gospel of John The author identifies himself only as the disciple whom Jesus loved and Christian tradition tells us that this disciple was the apostle John However during the past century scholars have increasingly come to doubt that attribution In 1902 Rudolf Steiner wrote that the author of the Gospel of John was in fact Lazarus Steiner's position stemmed from his insight that Lazarus's encounter with death involved far more than people realized an initiation into higher spiritual realities that uniquely qualified him to write this gospel Edward Smith takes up this argument and shows that subsequent research has tended to favor Lazarus for reasons grounded in John's Gospel itself More important Smith shows that subsequent discoveries at Nag Hammadi and Mar Saba corroborate Steiner's reasoning about the nature of the raising of Lazarus pointing to Lazarus as the rich young ruler of Mark's Gospel
