Christ Concrete:

Christ in Concrete Pietro di Donato, 2004-09-07 Giving voice to the hardworking Italian immigrants who worked and died in New York City shortly before the Great Depression this American classic ranks with Steinbeck's The Grapes of Wrath as one of the 20th century's great works of social protest Largely autobiographical Christ in Concrete opens with the dramatic Good Friday collapse of a building under construction crucifying in concrete an Italian construction worker whose death leaves his pregnant wife and eight children impoverished His oldest son Paul at just twelve years old must take over his father's role and his job Paul's odyssey into manhood begins on the high girders where death is an occupational hazard and a boy's dreams are the first fatality Written in sonorous prose that recalls the speaker's Italian origins Pietro di Donato's Christ in Concrete is at once a powerful social document and a deeply moving story about the American immigrant experience

An American Story Louise Napolitano, 1995 This text closely examines Pietro DiDonato's classic novel Christ in Concrete from an historical sociological and literary perspective Louise Napolitano examines Christ in Concrete 1939 as a chronicle of the experience of Italian immigrants in the United States during the twenties and early thirties The literary analysis involves a thematic and stylistic study focusing on the work's modern realistic naturalistic romantic and classic qualities In addition this study places Christ in Concrete in both the American as well as the Italian American literary tradition

Discipleship and Unity Cole Jodon, 2022-06-01 Discipleship and Unity Bonhoeffer's Ecumenical Theology presents a fresh approach to church unity and discipleship from a familiar voice Building constructively from the thought of Dietrich Bonhoeffer Cole Jodon offers an account of ecumenism in which the church is understood to be united as the person of Christ a unity that is concrete today through active obedient discipleship To develop this theology Jodon draws from Bonhoeffer's ecumenical engagement which is deepened through the theology of Bonhoeffer's wider corpus Jodon illumines Bonhoeffer's dynamic understanding of the church its unity and the manner in which that unity is made concrete in the world At its heart this book serves to advance an ecumenical theology enlivened by the living and present Christ who calls his church to follow after him together

The Other Journal: Marxism The Other Journal, 2013-10-01 The literary critic and Marxist philosopher Fredric Jameson has said It is easier to imagine the end of the world than to imagine the end of capitalism The military social and political effects of capitalism are felt everywhere across the planet and even as we acknowledge the negative effects the imbalances of power the imperialist exploitations the social alienation we are captivated by its message of self sufficiency and success In this issue The Other Journal examines the potentially surprising intersections of Marxism with Christianity the ways in which this nexus of thinking and faith may help us contend with and recognize the powers of the market The issue features essays and reviews by Daniel Colucciello Barber Luke Bretherton Kevein Hargaden Paul Dafydd Jones D L Mayfield W Travis McMaken Christina McRorie Thomas J Millay Silas Morgan and David Schmidt an interview by Timothy McGee with Joerg Rieger fiction by Alex McCauley creative nonfiction by Jonathan Hiskes poetry by Brett Foster Elizabeth Myhr and Hannah Faith Notess and art by Steve Bakker and Benjamin Violet

Karl Barth in Conversation W. Travis McMaken, David W. Congdon, 2014-02-18 Karl Barth was an eminently conversational theologian and with the Internet revolution we live today in an eminently conversational age Being the proceedings of the 2010 Karl Barth Blog Conference Karl Barth in Conversation brings these two factors together in order to advance the dialogue about Barth's theology and extend the online conversation to new audiences With conversation partners ranging from Wesley to Iek from Schleiermacher to Jenson from Hauerwas to the Coen brothers this volume opens up exciting new horizons for exploring Barth's immense contribution to church and world The contributors who represent a young new generation of academic theologians bring a fresh perspective to a topic the theology of Karl Barth that often seems to have exhausted its range of possibilities This book proves that there is still a great deal of uncharted territory in the field of Barth studies Today more than forty years since the Swiss theologian's death the conversation is as lively as ever

The American Sentinel, 1926 Christ in Practice Clive Marsh, 2006 In 1944 Dietrich Bonhoeffer asked Who is Christ for us today In this theologically informed and very practical exploration of what it means to live in Christ Clive Marsh seeks to answer Bonhoeffer's question in a way that is appropriate for the 21st Century Christ in Practice refuses to locate Christ solely in the Church but finds him in the midst of contemporary life especially in the complex ethical challenges of daily living Clive Marsh considers how Christ is present today and invites us to reflect on how communal human interaction can be informed and transformed through attempting to understand this question In the process he considers how Christ and the Church relate today highlighting the decisive role to be played by the Church in society and the humility with which it needs to fulfil its task Clive Marsh argues that the point of Christology and of Christianity itself is not to interpret Christ but to live within Christ and to do so without being consumed by Church It is a passionate plea for Christians to remain faithful to a commitment to Christ as present and active in the world Irrigation Review, 1922 The Architect and Engineer of
