Clybourne Park A Play:

Clybourne Park Bruce Norris, 2012 Clybourne Park spans two generations fifty years apart In 1959 Russ and Bev are selling their desirable two bedroom at a bargain price unknowingly bringing the first black family into the neighborhood borrowing a plot line from Lorraine Hansberry's A Raisin in the Sun and creating ripples of discontent among the cozy white residents of Clybourne Park In 2009 the same property is being bought by a young white couple whose plan to raze the house and start again is met with equal disapproval by the black residents of the soon to be gentrified area Are the issues festering beneath the floorboards actually the same fifty years on Bruce Norris's excruciatingly funny and squirm inducing satire explores the fault line between race and property Clybourne Park is the winner of the 2011 Pulitzer Prize for Drama and the winner of the 2012 Tony Award for Best Play Clybourne Park Bruce Norris, 2015-07-22 Clybourne Park,

Performing the Role of Francine/Lena in the Play Clybourne Park by Bruce Norris Oluchi Nwokocha, 2015 For this project I created the role of Francine and Lena in the play Clybourne Park by Bruce Norris The play was a co production between the School of Theatre and Dance at the University of Florida and The Hippodrome Theatre in the city of Gainesville The play was previewed on September 3 2014 and September 4 2014 before opening on September 5 2014 and ran for 35 performances Clybourne Park deals with race and socio economic classism over a period of fifty years The first act is set in 1959 and takes a look at what happens when a black family the Youngers from a Raisin in The Sun by Lorraine Hansberry moves into an all white neighborhood from the perspective of the white neighbors and the reverse when a white family moves into the now all black neighborhood in 2009 This paper will document my research explorations and challenges of playing two different characters in the same play in and out of the rehearsal process and throughout the three week production 100 Greatest American Plays Thomas Hischak, 2017-03-06 Theatre in America has had a rich history from the first performance of the Lewis Hallam Troupe in September 1752 to the lively shows of modern Broadway Over the past few centuries significant works by American playwrights have been produced including Abie's Irish Rose Long Day's Journey into Night A Streetcar Named Desire Death of a Salesman A Raisin in the Sun Fences and Angels in America In 100 Greatest American Plays Thomas S Hischak provides an engaging discussion of the best stage productions to come out of the United States Each play is discussed in the context of its original presentation as well as its legacy Arranged alphabetically the entries for these plays include plot details production history biography of the playwright literary aspects of the drama critical reaction to the play major awards the play's influence cast lists of notable stage and film versions The plays have been selected not for their popularity but for their importance to American theatre and include works by Edward Albee Harvey Fierstein Lorraine Hansberry Lillian Hellman Tony Kushner David Mamet Arthur Miller Eugene O'Neill Sam Shepard Neil Simon Gore Vidal Wendy Wasserstein Thornton Wilder Tennessee Williams and August Wilson This informative volume also includes complete lists of Pulitzer Prize winners for Drama the New York Drama Critics Circle Award for American Plays and the Tony Award

The Civil Rights Theatre Movement in New York, 1939-1966 Julie Burrell, 2019-03-27 This book argues that African American theatre in the twentieth century represented a cultural front of the civil rights movement Highlighting the frequently ignored decades of the 1940s and 1950s Burrell documents a radical cohort of theatre artists who became critical players in the fight for civil rights both onstage and offstage between the Popular Front and the Black Arts Movement periods The Civil Rights Theatre Movement recovers knowledge of little known groups like the Negro Playwrights Company and reconsiders Broadway hits including Lorraine Hansberry's A Raisin in the Sun showing how theatre artists staged radically innovative performances that protested Jim Crow and U S imperialism amidst a repressive Cold War atmosphere By conceiving of class and gender as intertwining aspects of racism this book reveals how civil rights theatre artists challenged audiences to reimagine the fundamental character of American democracy
