GRAMMAR

THE VERB

The verb is the most important word in a sentence. It tells us what is happening and who is doing it. Verbs can be used in many different ways, and it is important to know the rules for using them correctly.

Verb forms

Verbs can be used in different forms, depending on the tense and voice of the sentence. The most common forms are the infinitive, the present participle, the past participle, and the past tense.

Verb agreement

The verb must agree with the subject of the sentence. This means that the verb must be in the same tense and voice as the subject. For example, 'He is running' is correct, but 'He are running' is not.

SENTENCES

A sentence is a group of words that express a complete thought. Sentences can be simple, compound, or complex. They must always have a subject and a verb.

Subject

The subject is the person or thing that is doing the action. It is usually a noun or a pronoun.

Verb

The verb is the action or state of being. It is usually a word that ends in -s, -ed, or -ing.

Object

The object is the person or thing that is receiving the action. It is usually a noun or a pronoun.

Complement

The complement is a word or group of words that completes the meaning of the verb. It can be an adjective, a noun, or a phrase.

ADJECTIVES

Adjectives are words that describe nouns. They tell us what something is like, how much of something there is, or what kind of something it is.

Types of adjectives

- Descriptive adjectives: These adjectives describe the qualities of a noun. For example, 'The red car'.
- Quantitative adjectives: These adjectives tell us how much of something there is. For example, 'Three cars'.
- Proper adjectives: These adjectives are derived from proper nouns. For example, 'The British car'.

ADVERBS

Adverbs are words that describe verbs, adjectives, or other adverbs. They tell us how, when, where, or how often something happens.

Types of adverbs

- Adverbs of manner: These adverbs describe how something is done. For example, 'She ran quickly'.
- Adverbs of time: These adverbs describe when something happens. For example, 'He arrived late'.
- Adverbs of place: These adverbs describe where something happens. For example, 'She lives here'.
- Adverbs of frequency: These adverbs describe how often something happens. For example, 'She goes there often'.

PREPOSITIONS

Prepositions are words that show the relationship between a noun and another word in a sentence. They usually come before a noun.

Types of prepositions

- Prepositions of place: These prepositions show where something is. For example, 'The book is on the table'.
- Prepositions of time: These prepositions show when something happens. For example, 'We went to the park on Saturday'.
- Prepositions of direction: These prepositions show the direction of something. For example, 'She walked towards the park'.

CLAUSES

A clause is a group of words that has a subject and a verb. Clauses can be independent or dependent. Independent clauses can stand alone as a sentence, while dependent clauses cannot.

Independent clauses

Independent clauses are complete sentences. They have a subject and a verb, and they express a complete thought. For example, 'The car started'.

Dependent clauses

Dependent clauses are not complete sentences. They have a subject and a verb, but they do not express a complete thought. They need to be attached to an independent clause to make sense. For example, 'When the car started'.

EMPHASIS & EMPHASIS WORDS

Emphasis words are words that are used to make a statement more powerful or more important. They can be used in many different ways.

Types of emphasis words

- Adjectives: Words like 'big', 'small', 'tall', 'short'.
- Adverbs: Words like 'very', 'really', 'quite', 'too'.
- Prepositions: Words like 'in', 'on', 'at'.

SENTENCE PLANS & PARAGRAPHS

A sentence plan is a way of organizing your thoughts before you write a sentence. It helps you to think about the order of your ideas and the words you will use.

Types of sentence plans

- Simple sentence plan: This is the most basic type of sentence plan. It consists of a single subject and a single verb.
- Compound sentence plan: This type of sentence plan consists of two independent clauses joined together by a conjunction.
- Complex sentence plan: This type of sentence plan consists of one independent clause and one or more dependent clauses.
