Desire After Dark Andrew J. Owens, 2021-03-02 Since the 1960s the occult in film and television has responded to and reflected society's crises surrounding gender and sexuality In Desire After Dark Andrew J Owens explores media where figures such as vampires and witches make use of their supernatural knowledge in order to queer what otherwise appears to be a normative world Beginning with the global sexual revolutions of the 60s and moving decade by decade through Euro sleaze cinema and theatrical hardcore pornography the HIV AIDS crisis the popularity of New Age religions and witchcraft and finally the increasingly explicit sexualization of American cable television Owens contends that occult media has risen to prominence during the past 60 years as a way of exposing and working through cultural crises about queerness Through the use of historiography and textual analyses of media from Bewitched to The Hunger Owens reveals that the various players in occult media have always been well aware that non normative sexuality constitutes the heart of horror's enduring appeal By investigating vampirism witchcraft and other manifestations of the supernatural in media Desire After Dark confirms how the queer has been integral to the evolution of the horror genre and its persistent popularity as both a subcultural and mainstream media form

Nostalgia Or Perversion? Isabella van Elferen, 2007 Nostalgia or Perversion Gothic Rewriting from the Eighteenth Century until the Present Day presents an interdisciplinary approach to an important aspect of Gothic texts films and music that of rewriting From the eighteenth century Gothic novel to present day vampire films and Goth music the genre is characterised by its nostalgic reflection on past worlds narratives and identities Gothic nostalgia is often accompanied by a transgressive drive resulting in perversions of the rewritten past the modern vampire is no longer embodied evil but an attractive dandy while Goth subcultures reflect on Victorian aesthetics but pervert them by adding fetishist elements Gothic nostalgia transforms the past turning it upside down foregrounding its background and corrupting its order In this volume an international group of philosophy literature film and music scholars investigates the instrumental role of nostalgia and perversion in the Gothic TM s rewriting of the past If elements of both nostalgia and perversion are operative in Gothic rewriting how are they connected How do they play out in differing media How do they change audiences TM views on the relationships between binaries such as past and present other and self and norm and deviation Nostalgia or Perversion brings together the early Gothic novel present day female and black Gothic literature Goth subculture and music and the imagery of horror films and comic books thus broadening the definition of Gothic TM from a literary genre to a gesture of pervasive cultural criticism The interdisciplinary analysis of nostalgia and perversion in Gothic rewriting uncovers wholly new insights into the artistic and social functions of the Gothic making the volume useful to both scholars and students As the essays reflect on academic as well as popular texts and media it is also accessible to general readers Nostalgia or Perversion provides a sophisticated analysis of how the Gothic radically rewrites the past not as nostalgia but as a calculated act of transgression The past and how its reconstructions break down the boundaries between real and unreal and normal and abnormal is examined across a range of different media including novels films comic books television and music The essays in this collection also address how this issue shapes Gothic formulations of race sexuality and gender Both ambitious in scope and focused and rigorous in its analysis this book provides a critically important re evaluation of the Gothic tradition Andrew Smith University of Glamorgan UK The Gothic Gilda Williams, 2007 This comprehensive survey of the Gothic in contemporary visual culture explores the work of artists ranging from Andy Warhol to Cindy Sherman to Matthew Barney with texts by Julia Kristeva Marina Warner Jeff Wall and many others Victorians Institute Journal , 2007 2010
