Designing and Conducting Health Surveys Lu Ann Aday, Llewellyn J. Cornelius, 2011-01-20 Designing and Conducting Health Surveys is written for students teachers researchers and anyone who conducts health surveys This third edition of the standard reference in the field draws heavily on the most recent methodological research on survey design and the rich storehouse of insights and implications provided by cognitive research on question and questionnaire design in particular This important resource presents a total survey error framework that is a useful compass for charting the dangerous waters between systematic and random errors that inevitably accompany the survey design enterprise In addition three new studies based on national international and state and local surveys the UNICEF Multiple Indicator Cluster Surveys California Health Interview Survey and National Dental Malpractice Survey are detailed that illustrate the range of design alternatives available at each stage of developing a survey and provide a sound basis for choosing among them Parenting and Child Development in Low- and Middle-Income Countries Marc H. Bornstein, W. Andrew Rothenberg, Andrea Bizzego, Robert H. Bradley, Kirby Deater-Deckard, Gianluca Esposito, Jennifer E. Lansford, Diane L. Putnick, Susannah Zietz, 2022-09-09 This compelling volume advances the understanding of what parenting and related sociodemographic demographic and environmental variables look like and how they are associated with child development in low and middle income countries around the world Specifically expert authors document how child growth caregiving practices discipline and violence and children s physical home environments along with child and primary caregiver sociodemographic characteristics and household and national development demographic characteristics are associated with central domains of early childhood development across a substantial fraction of the majority world using contemporary 21st century data from the UNICEF Multiple Indicator Cluster Surveys and the UNICEF Early Childhood Development Index The lives of nearly 160 000 girls and boys aged 3 to 5 years in nationally representative samples from 51 low and middle income countries are sampled to address 7 principal questions about children caregiving and contexts Parenting and Child Development in Low and Middle Income Countries takes an authentically international approach to parenting the environment and child development in cultural contexts that more fully characterize the world s diversity Parenting and Child Development in Low and Middle Income Countries is essential reading for researchers and students of parenting psychology human development family studies sociology and cultural studies as well as governmental and non governmental professionals working with families in low and middle income countries Multiple Indicator Cluster Survey (1999) Nigeria.
