Contentious Episodes in the Age of Austerity Abel Bojar, Theresa Gessler, Swen Hutter, Hanspeter Kriesi, 2021-11-11 Based on extensive data and analysis of sixty contentious episodes in twelve European countries this book proposes a novel approach that takes a middle ground between narrative approaches and conventional protest event analysis Looking particularly at responses to austerity policies in the aftermath of the Great Recession 2008 2015 the authors develop a rigorous conceptual framework that focuses on the interactions between three types of participants in contentious politics governments challengers and third parties This approach allows political scientists to map not only the variety of actors and actor coalitions that drove the interactions in the different episodes but also the interplay of repression concessions support and of mobilization cooperation mediation on the part of the actors involved in the contention The methodology used will enable researchers to answer old and new research questions related to political conflict in a way that is simultaneously attentive to conceptual depth and statistical rigor

Documents on Irish Foreign Policy: 1965-1969 Royal Irish Academy, National Archives of Ireland, 1998 The thirteenth

volume in the Documents on Irish Foreign Policy DIFP series runs from April 1965 to July 1969 It covers the Fianna F il governments of Se n Lemass April 1965 to November 1966 and Jack Lynch November 1966 to July 1969 in which Frank Aiken was Minister for External Affairs The four years and three months covered by DIFP XIII saw significant changes in the international context in which Ireland conducted its foreign policy In 1965 the hope of the Department of External Affairs was that Ireland would enter the European Economic Community EEC before 1970 EEC entry would take place alongside that of Britain an Anglo Irish Free Trade Area AIFTA having come into operation in 1966 cementing trade between Ireland and its principal trading partner Overall the United Nations would remain the benchmark of global Irish foreign policy Peacekeeping advocating nuclear non proliferation and ensuring the proper financing of the United Nations as well as promoting decolonisation and the universality of the United Nations system within the bipolar world of the Cold War remained central to 1960s Irish foreign policy These assumptions were thrown out of balance by the continuing refusal of France to facilitate the expansion of the EEC and EEC membership remained out of reach for Ireland Dublin s fragile relations with Belfast were destabilised with the emergence of new social and political forces in Northern Ireland and the recurrence of sectarian violence The Department of External Affairs proved initially unable to respond comprehensively to this new environment in Northern Ireland which was the precursor to the outbreak of the Troubles in 1969 Improved economic and political relations with London were affected by local and international economic difficulties and also as a consequence of events in Northern Ireland At the United Nations superpower politics constrained Irish attempts to follow up the success of the 1968 Nuclear Non Proliferation Treaty with a major policy initiative on the financing of international peacekeeping missions
