INTRODUCTION

As stated by an African proverb, it takes a village in order to raise a kid. That statement only proves a certain common belief that people really thrive in an environment where they are comfortable, and where they feel mentally, spiritually, emotionally, and socially supported. Therefore, it only becomes natural to consider that one of the most vital tasks as an individual human being is to provide support and care for others. While giving this support, it is very important that we also do so while making sure that we keep their best interest in mind. This means that we need to show grace wherever and whenever possible, and at the same time, introducing personal biases as needed.

WHY STUDY THE FIELD OF ANTHROPOLOGY

Studying the field of anthropology is extremely important as a whole since from the very first time man stepped on this planet, he has already faced a lot of challenges to his survival. As such, he has developed certain habits which have helped him to endure several hardships. He has made for himself shelters which provide protection from harsh elements. He has also created certain rituals and traditions in order to celebrate his personal victories, fortune and relationships. All of these kinds of experience and knowledge were clearly passed from one person to another, thus making sure of the survival, as well as in lessening the burden that needs to be carried by the future generation.

The Routledge Handbook of Social Work Field Education in the Global South Rajendra Baikady, Sajid S.M., Varoshini Nadesan, M. Rezaul Islam, 2022-07-08 This handbook provides an authoritative account of social work field education in the global south. It presents an overview of various aspects of theory and practice modules in the social work curriculum and advances in research in social work field education in the developing world through in-depth analyses and global case studies. Key features: Discusses critical issues and new directions in the theory and practice of social work field education; challenges in field work education; decolonising field work training; developing competent social work graduates; aligning fieldwork with cultural practices in indigenous communities; the idea of clinical social work; and a comparative analysis of social work field supervision. Integrates theory and practice of social work field education for students and teachers from diverse geographical and cultural contexts across the global south including countries from South Asia and Asia, Africa and Latin America and the Caribbean covering India, Bangladesh, Pakistan, Nepal, Sri Lanka, China, Georgia, Philippines, Turkey, Papua New Guinea, Eswatini, Republic of Trinidad and Tobago, Kenya, Nigeria, South Africa, Botswana, Chile and Barbados. Brings together international comparative perspectives on field work education in social work from leading experts, social work educators and social work professionals. This handbook will be an essential resource for scholars and researchers of social work, development studies, social anthropology, sociology, education, South Asian studies and Global South studies. It will also be useful to educators and practitioners of social work in global institutions of higher studies as well as civil society organisations. Ancient World: Lesson Overviews, 5th ed., Poetry as Therapy, Research, and Education Rich Furman, 2022-03-01 Poetry as Therapy: Research and Education by Rich Furman is a collection of essential writings on the use of poetry in the social sciences. A social worker, researcher, educator, therapist, and poet himself, Furman's writing covers a multitude of topics relevant to poetry, healing, and growth. In this volume, the vital role that poetry plays in society and the social sciences is revealed in clear and accessible writing. Many of Furman's own poems are integrated to illustrate the diverse usages of poetry discussed in this volume. Grounded in theory, personal experience, and research, this book deepens our collective understanding of what poetry has to offer. It is indispensable for anyone seeking to integrate poetry into their own therapy, research, and teaching. Family Therapy Education and Supervision Fred P.
