God's Image and Global Cultures Kenneth Nehrbass,2016-08-26 Globalization has raised numerous questions about theology and culture for Christians How should we respond to outsourcing and immigration How does anti Western sentiment affect the proclamation of the gospel What is the role of the church in society This book argues that Christians will be most fulfilled and most effective if they embrace their cultural activity rather than feel ambivalent about it The central question of this book is how does bearing God s image relate to cultural activity Nehrbass explains that spheres of culture such as political technological and social structures are systems that God has instilled in humans as his image bearers so that they can glorify and enjoy him forever Therefore a theology of culture involves recognizing that the kingdom of God encompasses heaven and Earth rather than pitting heaven against Earth The text surveys anthropological explanations for humanity s dependence on culture and shows that each explanation provides only partial explanatory scope The most satisfying explanation is that a major functional aspect of bearing God s image is engaging in culture since the Trinity has been eternally engaged in cultural functions like ruling communicating and creating Each chapter contains a summary and questions about what it means to be a world changer in the twenty first century

Rhetoric at the Non-Substantialistic Turn Therese Boos Dykeman,2018-05-04 Rhetoric at the Non Substantialistic Turn The East West Coin presents a unique theory of rhetoric that encompasses both Eastern and Western approaches Based on the Field Being philosophy founded by Lik Kuen Tong this theory gives an account of the ontological foundations of both kinds of rhetoric Beginning with an exposition of the nature of Field Being rhetoric as Eastern and Western this book presents chapters on Eastern and Western rhetoric over history as power ethics art creativity politics and communication It acknowledges the thinking of many philosophers and rhetoricians who have contributed to East West comparative studies in both fields and argues that both understandings of rhetoric are necessary for global communication

Globalizing Intercultural Communication Kathryn Sorrells,Sachi Sekimoto,2015-01-02 Translating Theory into Practice Globalizing Intercultural Communication A Reader introduces students to intercultural communication within the global context and equips them with the knowledge and understanding to grapple with the dynamic interconnected and complex nature of intercultural relations in the world today This reader is organized around foundational and contemporary themes of intercultural communication Each of the 14 chapters pairs an original research article explicating key topics theories or concepts with a first person narrative that brings the chapter content alive and invites students to develop and apply their knowledge of intercultural communication Each chapter s pair of readings is framed by an introduction highlighting important issues presented in the readings that are relevant to the study and practice of intercultural communication and end of chapter pedagogical features including key terms and discussion questions In addition to illuminating concepts theories and issues authors editors Kathryn Sorrells and Sachi Sekimoto focus particular attention on grounding theory in everyday experience and translating theory into practice and actions that can be taken to promote social responsibility and social justice
