

Assessment Practice 1a 2 Answer Key

Directions: You will write answers to three questions and identify the spelling error with correction. Write your answers on a separate sheet of paper. Show your work on the same sheet of paper. Spelling: Write the word's correct spelling in regular handwriting on the "Spelling" sheet (provided). Also, list the part of speech and a sentence using the given information unless given. Indicate the correct literary element(s) with an arrow.

Use your imagination to be specific in writing details concerning each literary element. You will copy your assessment practice to a separate key sheet.

1. The author of the story "The Lottery" is Shirley Jackson. The story is set in a small town in the United States. The story is about a town that has a tradition of holding a lottery every year. The lottery is a cruel and senseless tradition that has been going on for generations. The story is a warning about the dangers of tradition and the importance of questioning authority.
