Aya Life In Yop City:

Aya: Love in Yop City Marguerite Abouet, 2021-06-10 Aya Love in Yop City comprises the final three chapters of the Aya story episodes never before seen in English. Aya is a lighthearted account of life in the Ivory Coast during the 1970s a particularly thriving and wealthy time in the country's history. While the stories found in Aya Love in Yop City maintain their familiar tone, quick pace and joyfulness, we see Aya and her friends beginning to make serious decisions about their future. When a professor tries to take advantage of Aya, her plans to become a doctor are seriously shaken and she vows to take revenge on the lecherous man. With a little help from the tight knit community of Yopougon, Aya comes through these trials stronger than ever. This second volume of the complete Aya includes unique appendices, recipes, guides to understanding Ivorian slang, street sketches and concluding remarks from Marguerite Abouet explaining history and social milieu. Inspired by Abouet's childhood, the series has received praise for offering relief from the disaster struck focus of most stories set in Africa. Aya is the winner of the Best First Album award at the Angoulême International Comics Festival, was nominated for the YALSA's Great Graphic Novels list and was included on best of lists from The Washington Post Booklist, Publishers Weekly and School Library Journal. Aya Love in Yop City has been translated from the French by Helge Dascher. Dascher has been translating graphic novels from French and German to English for over twenty years. A contributor to Drawn Quarterly since the early days, her translations include acclaimed titles such as Hostage by Guy Delisle and Beautiful Darkness by Fabien Vehlmann and Kerasco't. With a background in art history and history, she also translates books and exhibitions for museums in North America and Europe. She lives in Montreal.

Comics and Agency Vanessa Ossa, Jan-Noël Thon, Lukas R. A. Wilde, 2022-11-21. This volume aims to intensify the interdisciplinary dialogue on comics and related popular multimodal forms including manga, graphic novels and cartoons by focusing on the concept of medial mediated and mediating agency. To this end, a theoretically and methodologically diverse set of contributions explores the interrelations between individual, collective and institutional actors within historical and contemporary comics cultures. Agency is at stake when recipients resist hegemonic readings of multimodal texts. In the same manner, authorship can be understood as the attribution of agency of and between various medial instances and roles such as writers artists colorists letterers or editors as well as with regard to commercial rights holders such as publishing houses or conglomerates and reviewers or fans From this perspective aspects of comics production authorship and institutionalization can be related to aspects of comics reception appropriation and discursivation and circulation participation and canonization including their potential for transmedialization and making contributions to the formation of the public sphere
