Exploring EFL Fluency in Asia T. Muller, J. Adamson, P. Brown, S. Herder, 2014-10-04 In EFL contexts an absence of chances to develop fluency in the language classroom can lead to marked limitations in English proficiency This volume explores fluency development from a number of different perspectives investigating measurements and classroom strategies for promoting its development

Styles of Practice in Higher Education Carol Evans, Maria Kozhevnikov, 2016-04-08 This book highlights important discussions occurring within the styles field that have direct relevance for the development of effective twenty first century learning environments Styles research in this context is used as an umbrella term to encompass cognitive styles learning styles and approaches to learning as well as student and teacher beliefs and conceptions of learning and teaching Styles have the capacity to influence instruction in the ways that an educator chooses to design and deliver the curriculum However the potential of styles to inform teaching and learning and vice versa remains under explored Furthermore the frequent misuse and misinterpretation of styles has led to over simplistic assumptions and practices including the labelling of learners as one style or another and the focus on matching mode of instruction to style of learner A fundamental challenge therefore remains the dissemination of clear guidance on the effective ways of using styles research in practice this is the core aim of the Education Learning Styles Individual differences Network whose members have contributed chapters to this book The volume provides a major contribution to the knowledge base on enhancing the application of styles research to practice within both educational and workplace settings and is of considerable value to those involved in the design and delivery of effective learning environments within higher education Relationships between styles variables and other individual learning differences are considered across a range of subject domains medicine science teacher education and cultural contexts The key themes discussed include the potential of constructivist environments to effect change in learning behaviours the notion of deep approaches to learning relationships between approaches to learning and self regulated learning the varied learning and teaching responses of students teachers to specific constructivist interventions including the identification of specific patterns of responses that are characteristic of highlighted groups relationships between conceptions and approaches to learning and teaching This book was originally published as a special issue of Research Papers in Education

EFL Writing Teacher Education and Professional Development Estela Ene, Betsy Gilliland, Sarah Henderson Lee, Tanita Saenkhum, Lisya Seloni, 2024-04-16 This book explores how EFL writing teacher education is theoretically pedagogically methodologically and sociopolitically shaped given teachers unique local contexts and circumstances It showcases practitioners and researchers teaching in or studying geographic areas that have as yet been under represented in international publications and it focuses on ways that specific contexts create unique opportunities and constraints on what developing teachers know and do in their work The chapters prioritize local voices and materials to build a more inclusive and comprehensive picture of L2 writing globally enabling the book as a whole to both document and further shape pedagogical approaches to L2 writing Readers will be able to use the unique insights contained in this book in their own classrooms and professional development activities Literacy Essentials Regie Routman,2023-10-10 In her practical and inspirational book Literacy Essentials Engagement Excellence and Equity for All Learners author Regie Routman guides K 12 teachers to create a trusting intellectual and equitable classroom culture that allows all learners to thrive as self directed readers writers thinkers and responsible citizens Over the course of three sections Routman provides numerous Take Action ideas for implementing authentic and responsive teaching assessing and learning This book poses a key question How do we rise to the challenge of providing an engaging excellent equitable education for all learners including those from high poverty and underserved schools Teaching for Engagement Many high performing schools are characterized by a thriving school culture built on a network of authentic communication Teachers can strengthen classroom engagement by building a trusting and welcoming environment where all students can have a safe and collaborative space to grow and develop Pursuing Excellence Routman identifies 10 key factors that describe an excellent teacher ranging from intellectual curiosity to creativity and explains how carrying yourself as a role model contributes to an inclusive caring empathic and fair classroom She also stresses the importance for school leaders to make job embedded professional development a top priority Dismantling Unequal Education The huge gap in the quality of education in high vs low income communities is the civil rights issue of the 21st century according to Routman She spells out specific actions educators can take to create more equitable schools and classrooms such as diversifying texts used in curriculums and ensuring all students have access to opportunities to discuss reflect and engage with important ideas From the author I wrote Literacy Essentials because I saw a need to simplify teaching raise expectations and make expert teaching possible for all of us I saw a need to emphasize how a school culture of kindness trust respect and curiosity is essential to any lasting achievement I saw a need to demonstrate and discuss how and why the beliefs actions knowledge we hold determine the potential for many of our students Equal opportunity to learn depends on a culture of engagement and equity which under lies a relentless pursuit of excellence Engaging the Next Generation of Aviation Professionals Suzanne K. Kearns,Timothy J. Mavin,Steven Hodge,2019-11-08 Engaging the Next Generation of Aviation Professionals is an edited volume that brings together a diverse set of academic and professional perspectives within the three themes of attracting educating and retaining the next generation of aviation professionals NGAP This compilation is the first academic work specifically targeting this critical issue The book presents a rich variety of perspectives academic philosophies and real world examples Submissions include brief case studies longer scholarly works from respected academics and professional reflections from individuals who have made important contributions to their field The book includes academic chapters that explore the topic from a more theoretical standpoint yet are accessible and understandable to a professional audience These are complemented by both broad and specific practice examples that describe initiatives and applications occurring in the industry around the three themes All submissions include descriptive insights experiences and first hand accounts of accomplishments intended to support the work of other professionals managing NGAP issues This work will be valuable to anyone involved in attracting educating or retaining NGAP including academics operators national and international regulators and outreach coordinators among many others Powerful Practices for High-Performing Special Educators Robert Kaufman,Robert Wandberg,2015-05-26 Special education teachers face unique challenges especially when they are just beginning This essential resource offers special educators a blueprint for dealing with the most common challenges they face both in the classroom and in the larger school environment These research based strategies help teachers meet the academic needs of diverse students with disabilities including those who are also English language learners in areas such as setting up a classroom managing student behavior designing effective instruction incorporating technology embracing diversity and more Each chapter features An overview and objectives A brief research review Step by step strategies that can be used immediately Examples and scenarios from real teaching experiences Self assessments and reflections This all in one reference book offers the tools strategies and support special educators need for success in their first year and every year thereafter The Lean Education Manifesto Arran Hamilton,John Hattie,2022-03-30 The global expansion of education is one of the greatest successes of the modern era More children have access to schooling and leave with higher levels of learning than at any time in history However 250 million children in developing countries are still not in school and 600 million attend but get little out of it a situation further exacerbated by the dislocations from COVID 19 In a context where education funding is stagnating and even declining Arran Hamilton and John Hattie suggest that we need to start thinking Lean and explicitly look for ways of unlocking more from less Drawing on data from 900 systematic reviews of 53 000 research studies from the perspective of efficiency of impact they controversially suggest that for low and middle income countries Maybe pre service initial teacher training programs could be significantly shortened and perhaps even stopped Maybe teachers need not have degree level qualifications in the subjects they teach and they might not really need degrees at all Maybe the hours per week and years of schooling that each child receives could be significantly reduced or at least not increased Maybe learners can be taught more effectively and less resource intensively in mixed age classrooms with peers tutoring one another Maybe different approaches to curriculum instruction and the length of the school day might be more cost effective ways of driving up student achievement than hiring extra teachers reducing class sizes or building more classrooms Maybe school based management public private partnerships and performance related pay are blind and expensive alleys that have limited influence or impact on what teachers actually do in classrooms This groundbreaking and thought provoking work also identifies a range of initiatives that are worth starting It introduces the Leaning to G O L D methodology to support school and system leaders in selecting implementing and scaling those high probability initiatives and to rigorously de implement those to be stopped It is essential reading for anyone with an interest in education
