Remember that an artist's drawing is not a photograph. The artist's drawing is not a record of the world.

PROBLEM 1.1

General Narrative Drawing

Make a drawing in which you combine several figures in motion in the center of your subject. In this drawing, you can take any of the previous studies.

Use the following guidelines for drawing a figure in motion. The figure should be positioned in the center of the drawing (Figure 1.11). Use the previous studies as a guide for the figure's motion and the overall composition. The figure should be the most detailed and expressive part of the drawing. The background should be less detailed and less expressive than the figure in the center.

Concrete Form

Make a detailed drawing of a concrete form in motion in motion. Use the same guidelines as in the study of Figure 1.11. In this drawing, the figure should be the most detailed and expressive part of the drawing. The background should be less detailed and less expressive than the figure in the center.
