Environmental Education Council, 1972 A Statewide Partnership for Environmental Education Pennsylvania Center for Environmental Education, 2003* Environmental Education in the 21st Century Joy Palmer, 2002-09-11 Environmental education is a field characterised by a paradox Few would doubt the urgency and importance of learning to live in sustainable ways but environmental education holds nowhere near the priority position in formal schooling around the world that this would suggest This text sets out to find out why this is so It is divided into six parts Part 1 is a concise history of the development of environmental education from an international perspective Part 2 is an overview of the global agenda or subject knowledge of environmental education Part 3 introduces perspectives on theory and research in environmental education Part 4 moves on to practice and presents an integrated model for planning environmental education programmes Part 5 brings together invited contributors who talk about environmental education in their own countries from 15 countries including China South Africa Sri Lanka and the USA Part 6 returns to the core questions of how progress can be made and how we can maximise the potential of environmental education for the twenty first century Environmental Education and Advocacy Edward A. Johnson, Michael J. Mappin, 2005-03-03 Environmental education has often blurred the distinction between ecological science and environmental advocacy Growing public awareness of environmental problems and desire for action may be contributing to this blurring There is a need to clarify the distinction between the role of ecological science and the role of social and political values for the environment within environmental education This book addresses this need by examining the changing perspectives of ecology in education and the changing perspectives of education in environmental education Guidelines are provided for assessing the science and education perspectives within environmental education along with suggested frameworks for development of programs and resources that integrate current science education and action This book will be of interest to environmental educators
