The Anthropology of Magic Susan Greenwood,2009-11-01 Magic is arguably the least understood subject in anthropology today Exotic and fascinating it offers us a glimpse into another world but it also threatens to undermine the foundations of anthropology due to its supposed irrational and non scientific nature Magic has thus often been explained away by social or psychological reduction The Anthropology of Magic redresses the balance and brings magic as an aspect of consciousness into focus through the use of classic texts and cutting edge research Suitable for student and scholar alike The Anthropology of Magic updates a classical anthropological debate concerning the nature of human experience A key theme is that human beings everywhere have the potential for magical consciousness Taking a new approach to some perennial topics in anthropology such as shamanism mythology witchcraft and healing the book raises crucial theoretical and methodological issues to provide the reader with an engaging and critical understanding of the dynamics of magic

The Practice of Reform in Health, Medicine, and Science, 1500-2000 Scott Mandelbrote,2017-07-05 Histories of medicine and science are histories of political and social change as well as accounts of the transformation of particular disciplines over time This volume considers the effect that demands for social and political reform have had on the theory and above all the practice of medicine and science and on the promotion of human health from the Renaissance and Enlightenment up to the present

Ancient Magic and Ritual Power Paul Mirecki,Meyer,2015-08-24 This volume contains a series of provocative essays that explore expressions of magic and ritual power in the ancient world The essays are authored by leading scholars in the fields of Egyptology ancient Near Eastern studies the Hebrew Bible Judaica classical Greek and Roman studies early Christianity and patristics and Coptology Throughout the book the essays examine the terms employed in descriptions of ancient magic From this examination comes a clarification of magic as a polemical term of exclusion but also an understanding of the classical Egyptian and early Greek conceptions of magic as a more neutral category of inclusion This book should prove to be foundational for future scholarly studies of ancient magic and ritual power This publication has also been published in paperback please click here for details

Beyond Primitivism Jacob K. Olupona,2004-02-24 At a time when local traditions across the world are forcibly colliding with global culture Beyond Primitivism explores the future of indigenous religions as they encounter modernity and globalisation

Ways of Baloma Mark S. Mosko,2017-11-15 Bronislaw Malinowski s path breaking research in the Trobriand Islands shaped much of modern anthropology s disciplinary paradigm Yet many conundrums remain For example Malinowski asserted that baloma spirits of the dead were responsible for procreation but had limited influence on their living descendants in magic and other matters claims largely unchallenged by subsequent field investigators until now Based on extended fieldwork at Omarakana village home of the Tabalu Paramount Chief Mark S Mosko argues instead that these and virtually all contexts of indigenous sociality are conceived as sacrificial reciprocities between the mirror worlds that baloma and humans inhabit Informed by a synthesis of Strathern's model of individual personhood and Lévy Bruhl's theory of participation Mosko opens a century of discussion and debate extending from Malinowski to anthropology's other leading thinkers His account of the intimate interdependencies of humans and spirits in the cosmic generation and coordination of life, momova and death, kaliga strikes at the nexus of anthropology's received wisdom and Ways of Baloma will inevitably lead practitioners and students to reflect anew on the discipline's multifold theories of personhood, ritual agency and sociality Orita, 2004 Matter, Machines, and Metaphor Zakiya Asha Jenan Hanafi, 1991 The Review of Rabbinic Judaism, 2001 Ancient Magic and Ritual Power Marvin W. Meyer, Paul Allan Mirecki, 1995 This volume contains a series of provocative essays written by leading scholars who study the ancient Mediterranean and Near Eastern worlds on magic and ritual power The essays address how ancient magic might be defined and how it came into expression in a wide variety of cultural contexts This publication has also been published in paperback please click here for details Journal of the Anthropological Society of Oxford, 1992 Spiritual Transformation and Healing Joan Koss-Chioino, Philip Hefner, 2006 Joan D Koss Chioino and Philip Hefner's new volume is unique in exploring the meaning of spiritual transformation and healing with new research from a scientific perspective An interdisciplinary group of contributors anthropological psychological medical theological and biological scientists investigate the role of religious communities and healing practitioners with spiritual transformation as their medium of healing Individual authors evaluate the meaning of spiritual transformations and the consequences for those who experience it the contributions of indigenous healing systems new frameworks for neurological and physiological correlates of transformative religious experiences the support from neuroscience for the radical empathy and intersubjective exchange that takes place in healing practices and evidence for universal elements of the healing process This exciting new book will be an invaluable resource for those generally interested in the role of religion in society across the sciences social sciences and all religious traditions With a foreword by Solomon H Katz Proceedings of the 6th International Conference on Thai Studies: Theme 2, Cultural crisis and the Thai capitalist transformation, 1996 Behind the Crystal Ball Anthony F. Aveni, 2002 In this fascinating exploration of occult practice Anthony Aveni takes the reader on a whirlwind tour through time and space to unveil the many ways people have used magic over the millennia in hopes of improving their lives As Aveni persuasively argues the ancients sought what we now search for through science and religion a clearer picture of humanity's place in the cosmos Materia Magica Andrew T.
