Teaching Young Children: Choices In Theory And Practice Mac

Naughton, Glenda, Williams, Gillian, 2008-11-01 This book presents early childhood students and staff with a broad and diverse range of teaching techniques to support children's learning. It examines 26 techniques ranging from simple ones such as describing and listening to more complex methods such as deconstruction and scaffolding. The strategies selected are derived from the best current research knowledge about how young children learn. A detailed evaluation of each strategy enables childcare staff, early childhood teachers and students to expand their repertoire of teaching strategies and to critically evaluate their own teaching in early childhood settings. Vignettes and examples show how early childhood staff use the techniques to support children's learning and help to bring the discussion of each technique to life. Revised and updated in light of the latest research, new features include: Coverage of the phonics debate; Addition of ICT content; Questions for further discussion; Revision to the chapter on problem solving; Updated referencing throughout. Teaching Young Children is key reading for students and experienced early childhood staff working in diverse settings with young children. Help Your Child to Read: Teach Yourself Dee Reid, Diana Bentley, 2010-11-26 Help Your Child to Read: Teach Yourself shows you how to develop your child's skills and foster a love of books from an early age. From discovering the benefits of singing and rhyming together to learning letters and later helping them at school, it gives you all the practical advice you need to confidently help your child whatever their age and reading ability. Teach Yourself, the world's leading learning brand, is relaunched in 2010 as a multi-platform experience that will keep you motivated to achieve your goals. Let our expert author guide you through this brand new edition with personal insights, tips, energising self-tests and summaries throughout the book. Go online at www.teachyourself.com for tests, extension articles and a vibrant community of like-minded learners. And if you don't have much time, don't worry: every book gives you 15 and 10 minute bites of learning to get you started. Gives your child a head start. Shows you how to read with your baby. Explains how to teach basic letters. Shows you how to help them make progress at school. A Parent's Guide to Reading with Your Young Child Susan B. Neuman, Tanya S. Wright, 2006-04 A guide for parents on reading to their children offers specific title suggestions, discusses what type of books to read and describes how when and where to read to each of five age groups from newborns to five year olds. Parents, 2001 Choice Humor for Reading and Recitation Charles Chalmers Shoemaker, 1914 Discovery Play Art Ulene, Steven P.
