simple infographics and evocative photos show kids what's real and what's fake on the various social media platforms and how to tell the difference Digital and Media Literacy in the Age of the Internet Mary Beth Hertz, 2019 Today's educators are confronted on a daily basis with the challenges of navigating digital resources, tools, and technologies with their students. They are often unprepared for the complexities of these challenges or might not be sure how to engage their students safely and responsibly. This book serves as a comprehensive guide for educators looking to make informed decisions and navigate digital spaces with their students. The author sets the stage for educators who may not be familiar with the digital world that their students live in, including the complexities of online identities, digital communities, and the world of social media. With deep dives into how companies track us, how the Internet works, privacy, and legal concerns tied to today's digital technologies, strategies for analyzing images, and other online sources, readers will gain knowledge about how their actions and choices can affect students' privacy as well as their own. Each chapter is paired with detailed lessons for elementary, middle, and high school students to help guide educators in implementing what they have learned into the classroom.

Fighting Fake News! Teaching Critical Thinking and Media Literacy in a Digital Age Brian Housand, 2021-09-03

Educators have long struggled to teach students to be critical consumers of the information that they encounter. This struggle is exacerbated by the amount of information available thanks to the Internet and mobile devices. Students must learn how to determine whether or not the information they are accessing is reputable. Fighting Fake News focuses on applying critical thinking skills in digital environments while also helping students and teachers to avoid information overload. According to a 2017 Pew Research report, we are now living in a world where 67% of people report that they get their news from social media. With the lessons and activities in this book, students will be challenged to look at the media they encounter daily to learn to deepen and extend their media literacy and critical thinking skills. Now more than ever, teachers need the instruction in Fighting Fake News to teach students how to locate, evaluate, synthesize, and communicate information. Grades 4-6
