Islam, Society, and Politics in Central Asia Pauline Jones, 2017-07-20 During the 1990s there was a general consensus that Central Asia was witnessing an Islamic revival after independence and that this occurrence would follow similar events throughout the Islamic world in the prior two decades which had negative effects on both social and political development Twenty years later we are still struggling to fully understand the transformation of Islam in a region that s evolved through a complex and dynamic process involving diversity in belief and practice religious authority and political intervention This volume seeks to shed light on these crucial questions by bringing together an international group of scholars to offer a fresh perspective on Central Asian states and societies The chapters provide analysis through four distinct categories the everyday practice of Islam across local communities state policies toward Islam focusing on attempts to regulate public and private practice through cultural legal and political institutions and how these differ from Soviet policies how religious actors influence communities in the practice of Islam state policies towards the religion and subsequent communal responses to state regulations and how knowledge of and interaction with the larger Islamic world is shaping Central Asia s current Islamic revival and state responses The contributors a multidisciplinary and international group of leading scholars develop fresh insights that both corroborate and contradict findings from previous research while also highlighting the problem of making any generalizations about Islam in individual states or the region As such this volume provides new and impactful analysis for scholars students and policy makers concerned with Central Asia

Islamic Revivalism Jan A. Ali, 2012-06 Contemporary Islamic revivalism is a multi dimensional and multi faceted phenomenon This book explores this phenomenon through an ethnographic study of the world s largest Islamic revivalist movement the Tabligh Jama at Convey message of Islam Group The basic contention of the book is that contemporary Islamic revivalism is a defensive reaction to the crisis of modernity yet it is neither anti modernity nor does it seek modernity s destruction Rather it highlights that Muslims are in a crisis They face the threat of losing their faith and identity in modernity because according to the revivalist Muslims the true Islamic practice no longer constitutes the foundation of everyday Muslim living To preclude this from reaching a point of no return Islamic revivalist movements like the Tabligh Jama at are engaged in encouraging Muslims to return to the true teachings of Islam and restoring the Islamic glory that once was the envy of the world This volume highlights the veritable sectarian intensity with which Tablighis undertake this restorative work
