Sample Book Insights: 1. The ship Patrick Kennedy boarded in 1849 was the SS Washington Irving, which transported millions of Irish fleeing the mid-nineteenth century Great Hunger. The ship's conditions were universally harrowing, and the monthlong crossing from Liverpool to Boston was no exception. 2. The Kennedy family, who were originally nicknamed the shanty Irish, had finally become respectable. Patrick had become rich in the liquor business and gave out free drinks to those who could help him rise in the Democratic Party. 3. The Kennedy family had a mantra: win at all costs. They were extremely thankful for the country that had embraced their family and felt a duty to give back to it. 4. The family moves to Bronxville, a mansion at 294 Pondfield Road in 1927. Joe is a multimillionaire by this point, and the family is extremely happy. But they are not allowed to complain or whine, as Joe's voice would clamp down on them. He assembles a database of thousands of books and hundreds of millions of words and starts asking the questions that have intrigued curious word nerds and book lovers for generations: What are our favorite authors' favorite words? Do men and women write differently? Are bestsellers getting dumber over time? Which bestselling writer uses the most clichés? What makes a great opening sentence? How can we judge a book by its cover? And which writerly advice is worth following or ignoring?
