The Red Notebook and Other Writings Paul Auster,1996 A collection of interviews and essays in which the American writer Paul Auster reflects on the need to break down the boundary between living and writing and on the use of certain genre conventions to penetrate matters of memory and identity The Red Notebook Paul Auster,2005 In this acrobatic and virtuosic collection Paul Auster traces the compulsion to make literature In a selection of interviews as well as in the essay The Red Notebook itself Auster reflects upon his own work on the need to break down the boundary between living and writing and on the use of certain genre conventions to penetrate matters of memory and identity The Red Notebook both illuminates and undermines our accepted notions about literature and guides us towards a finer understanding of the dangerously high stakes involved in writing It also includes Paul Auster s impassioned essay A Prayer for Salman Rushdie as well as a set of striking and bittersweet reminiscences collected under the apposite title Why Write Paul Auster's
