The Theosophist, 1912     Meditations on the Essence of Christianity, and on the Religious Questions of the Day François Guizot, 2023-09-21     Reproduction of the original     The publishing house Megali specialises in reproducing historical works in large print to make reading easier for people with impaired vision     Transnational Gothic Monika Elbert, 2016-02-17     Offering a variety of critical approaches to late eighteenth and nineteenth century Gothic literature this collection provides a transnational view of the emergence and flowering of the Gothic The essays expand on now well known approaches to the Gothic such as those that concentrate exclusively on race gender or nation by focusing on international issues religious traditions social reform economic and financial pitfalls manifest destiny and expansion changing concepts of nationhood and destabilizing moments of empire building By examining a wide array of Gothic texts including novels drama and poetry the contributors present the Gothic not as a peripheral marginal genre but as a central mode of literary exchange in an ever expanding global context Thus the traditional conventions of the Gothic such as those associated with Ann Radcliffe and Monk Lewis are read alongside unexpected Gothic formulations and lesser known Gothic authors and texts These include Mary Rowlandson and Bram Stoker Frances and Anthony Trollope Louisa May Alcott Elizabeth Gaskell Theodore Dreiser Rudyard Kipling and Lafcadio Hearn as well as the actors Edmund Kean and George Frederick Cooke Individually and collectively the essays provide a much needed perspective that eschews national borders in order to explore the central role that global and particularly transatlantic exchange played in the development of the Gothic British American Continental Caribbean and Asian Gothic are represented in this collection which seeks to deepen our understanding of the Gothic as not merely a national but a global aesthetic     Transactions Inverness Gaelic Society, 1889     List of members in each vol     The American Ecclesiastical Review Herman Joseph Heuser, 1952     Outcast Essays and Verse Translations Shadworth Hollway Hodgson, 1881     The Works of Orestes A. Brownson: Explanations and index Orestes Augustus Brownson, 1887     The Palgrave Handbook of Steam Age Gothic Clive Bloom, 2021-02-03     By the early 1830s the old school of Gothic literature was exhausted Late Romanticism emphasising as it did the uncertainties of personality and imagination gave it a new lease of life Gothic the literature of disturbance and uncertainty now produced works that reflected domestic fears sexual crimes drug filled hallucinations the terrible secrets of middle class marriage imperial horror at alien invasion occult demonism and the insanity of psychopaths It was from the 1830s onwards that the old gothic castle gave way to the country house drawing room the dungeon was displaced by the sewers of the city and the villains of early novels became the familiar figures of Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde Dracula Dorian Grey and Jack the Ripper After the death of Prince Albert 1861 the Gothic became darker more morbid obsessed with demonic lovers blood sucking ghouls blood stained murderers and deranged doctors Whilst the gothic architecture of the Houses of Parliament and the new Puginesque churches upheld a Victorian ideal of sobriety Christianity and imperial destiny Gothic literature filled these new spaces with a dread that spread like a plague to America France Germany and even Russia From 1830 to 1914 the period covered by this volume we saw the emergence of the greats of Gothic literature and the supernatural from Edgar Allan Poe to Emily Bronte from Sheridan Le Fanu to Bram Stoker and Robert Louis Stevenson Contributors also examine the fin de siècle dreamers of decadence such as Arthur Machen M P Shiel and Vernon Lee and their obsession with the occult folklore spiritualism revenants ghostly apparitions and cosmic annihilation This volume explores the period through the prism of architectural history urban studies feminism hauntology and much more Horror as Poe teaches us is the soul of the plot

'Inquietude' in the Work of Pierre Mac Orlan Roger W. Baines,2000 This is the first major study in English of the work of the French novelist essayist journalist poet and chansonnier Pierre Mac Orlan 1882-1970 It assesses Mac Orlan's contribution to the post 1918 phenomenon of intellectual disillusionment and disorientation which was termed the nouveau mal du siècle or inquiétude Although he has largely been ignored by critics thus far Mac Orlan was part of mainstream French literary production and a major exponent of inquiétude Where he differs from his contemporaries is in his subject matter in his use of sociological rather than abstract intellectual material His expression of inquiétude encompasses le fantastique social adventure marginality le cafarde and sadistic sexuality His originality lies in his invention of le fantastique social in his constant use of certain techniques as well as the subject matter of German Expressionism via the depiction of the disturbing landscape of the modern city post 1918 inflation and decadence prostitutes and criminals doomed adventurers the mystery of modern technology and in the expression of a morbid interest in sexual violence This volume will be of particular interest to students of inter war French literature and thought
