Personal Finance Student Edition Jake Henderson, Robert Marshall, 2016-04-22

Reading Through History is pleased to present the Student Edition of Personal Finance: The Path to Financial Literacy. It is a collaborative effort of two classroom teachers with a combined thirty years of teaching experience at the secondary level. This workbook includes 65 pages of student activities related to various personal finance topics. The workbook includes 14 individual lessons. This is the go-to resource for any teacher or home schooling parent needing to teach their students a personal finance unit. The book covers all requirements included in most programs related to personal finance. It is sure to be an almost perfect fit for any classroom, be it elementary, middle school, or above. Each lesson has several pages of student activities to accompany the reading, including multiple choice questions, fill-in-the-blank activities, vocabulary exercises, and student response essay questions. The lesson topics include, but are not limited to, earning an income, setting a budget, taxes, financial service providers, saving for retirement, borrowing money, and choosing a home. Other lessons also focus on consumer fraud, bankruptcy, gambling, and charitable giving. Again, this is the Student Edition, which does not include the post-assessments or
