The Role of Emotions in Effective Negotiations Niklas Lochner, 2017-03-08 Bachelor Thesis from the year 2016 in the subject Psychology Work Business Organisation grade 1.0 University of Applied Sciences Aschaffenburg language English abstract Whether people are bargaining for the price of a flower at the florist's around the corner a teenager is negotiating about the time he has to be home at night or the German Bayer AG is negotiating a 66bn takeover deal with Monsanto negotiations happen every day for different reasons. Even though we are negotiating every day there is still a misunderstanding about negotiations that often jeopardizes the outcome of the negotiation. Most people think that negotiating is a sequence of rational decision processes whereas as a matter of fact negotiating involves a dimension that is most often underestimated or ignored emotions. These might be positive emotions like happiness or negative emotions like disappointment and guilt but what they all have in common is that they significantly impact negotiations. This lack of awareness about the influence of emotions on negotiations often leads to negotiation strategies that ignore emotions even though recognizing and using emotions can significantly improve the negotiation experience and results. Based on the assumption that emotions do influence negotiations this thesis focuses on the question how different emotions influence the negotiation and which skills and knowledge are necessary in order to improve negotiations through emotional intelligence.

Negotiation: Readings, Exercises, and Cases Roy Lewicki, Bruce Barry, David Saunders, 2007 Negotiation is a critical skill needed for effective management. NEGOTIATION READINGS EXERCISES AND CASES 5e takes an experiential approach and explores the major concepts and theories of the psychology of bargaining and negotiation and the dynamics of interpersonal and inter group conflict and its resolution. It is relevant to a broad spectrum of management students not only human resource management or industrial relations candidates. It contains approximately 50 readings, 32 exercises, 9 cases and 5 questionnaires.

What's Fair Carrie Menkel-Meadow, Michael Wheeler, 2004-03-15 What's Fair is a landmark collection that focuses exclusively on the crucial topic of ethics in negotiation.
