Doing Gender in Media, Art and Culture Rosemarie Buikema, Liedeke Plate, Kathrin Thiele, 2009-06-02 Doing Gender in Media Art and Culture is an introductory text for students specialising in gender studies. The truly interdisciplinary and intergenerational approach bridges the gap between humanities and the social sciences and it showcases the academic and social context in which gender studies has evolved. Complex contemporary phenomena such as globalisation, neo liberalism and fundamentalism are addressed that stir up new questions relevant to the study of culture. This vibrant and wide ranging collection of essays is essential reading for anyone in need of an accessible but sophisticated guide to the very latest issues and concepts within gender studies. Doing Gender in Media Art and Culture is an indispensable introduction to third wave feminism and contemporary gender studies. It is international in scope, multidisciplinary in method and transmedial in coverage. It shows how far feminist theory has come since Simone de Beauvoir's Second Sex and marks out clearly how much still needs to be done. Hayden White, Professor of Historical Studies Emeritus, University of California and Professor of Comparative Literature, Stanford University, US. Doing Gender in Media, Art and Culture Rosemarie Buikema, Liedeke Plate, Kathrin Thiele, 2017-10-03 Doing Gender in Media Art and Culture 2nd edition is a comprehensive gender studies textbook with an international focus and relevance across a broad range of academic disciplines. Covering an array of topics, theories and approaches to gender studies, it introduces students to the study of gender through geographically diverse case studies on different historical and contemporary figures. The volume covers the established canon of gender studies, including questions of representation, standpoints and intersectionality. It addresses emerging areas including religion, technology and online feminist engagement, as well as complex contemporary phenomena such as globalization, neoliberalism and fundamentalism. Core figures ranging from Simone de Beauvoir to Gloria Anzaldúa and from Florence Nightingale to Malala Yousafzai serve as prisms of gender sensitive analysis for each chapter. This vibrant textbook is essential reading for anyone in need of an accessible yet sophisticated guide to gender studies today. Doing Gender in Media, Art, and Culture Rosemarie Buikema, Liedeke Plate, Kathrin Thiele, 2026-04-23 Doing Gender in Media Art and Culture provides a critical introduction to recent developments in cultural gender studies. Focusing primarily on the fields of art, culture and media, it encompasses literary, historical, film, performance and indigenous studies, as well as the digital humanities. Gender studies currently find themselves at the heart of a deeply troubling socio-political landscape. The eighteen chapters in this volume aim to provide knowledge on how to understand the current backlash against feminism and how to navigate the increasingly polarised debates surrounding systemic racism and sexism, anti-trans violence and non-binary gender identifications. It teaches its readers how to address epistemic inequalities in knowledge production and how to make sense of the role of gender in thinking about racism, climate change and armed conflict. Analysing the mechanisms of inclusion and exclusion is a core task of feminist scholarship and consequently motivates the intersectional and gender sensitive research methods that are brought to the fore in this book This vibrant and wide ranging collection of essays is essential reading for anyone seeking an accessible yet sophisticated guide to the foundational issues concepts and debates within gender studies New Books on Women, Gender and Feminism ,2010 New Books on Women and Feminism ,2011 Abstracts of Papers Delivered in Art History Sessions College Art Association of America.
