Megathreats Nouriel Roubini, 2022-10-18 Read and pay attention Martin Wolf the Financial Times the bestselling author of Crisis Economics argues we are heading toward the worst economic catastrophe of our lifetimes unless we can defend against ten terrifying threats Renowned economist Nouriel Roubini was nicknamed Dr Doom until his prediction of the 2008 housing crisis and Great Recession came true when it was too late Now he is back with a much scarier prediction one that we ignore at our peril There are no fewer than ten overlapping interconnected threats that are so serious he calls them Megathreats From the worst debt crisis the world has ever seen to governments pumping out too much money to borders that are blocked to workers and to many shipments of goods to the rise of a new superpower competition between China and the U S to climate change that strikes directly at our most populated cities we are facing not one not two but ten causes of disaster There is a slight chance we can avoid them if we come to our senses but we must act now In the 1970s the U S faced stagflation high rates of inflation combined with stagnant employment and growth Today we are heading toward a Great Stagflation that will make the 1970s look like a walk in the park

John Marsh, 2019-10-31. The Emotional Life of the Great Depression documents how Americans responded emotionally to the crisis of the Great Depression. Unlike most books about the 1930s which focus almost exclusively on the despair of the American people during the decade, this volume explores the 1930s through other equally essential emotions: righteousness, panic, fear, awe, love, and hope. In expanding the canon of Great Depression emotions, the book draws on an eclectic archive of sources including the ravings of a would-be presidential assassin, stock market investment handbooks, a Cleveland serial murder case, Jesse Owens's record-setting long jump at the 1936 Berlin Olympics, King Edward VIII's abdication from his throne to marry a twice-divorced American woman, and the founding of Alcoholics Anonymous. In concert with these, it offers new readings of the imaginative literature of the period, from obscure Christian apocalyptic novels and H.P. Lovecraft short stories to classics like John Steinbeck's The Grapes of Wrath and Richard Wright's Native Son. The result is a new take on the Great Depression, one that emphasizes its major events: the stock market crash, unemployment, the passage of the Social Security Act, but also—and perhaps even more so—its sensibilities, its structures of feeling. Adrift

Scott Galloway, 2022-09-27. From bestselling author, CNN host of No Mercy, No Malice, and NYU business school professor, Scott Galloway comes an urgent examination of the future of our nation and how we got here. We are only just beginning to reckon with our post-pandemic future. As political extremism intensifies, the great resignation affects businesses everywhere, and supply chain issues crush bottom lines, we're faced with daunting questions: Is our democracy under threat? How will Big Tech change our lives? What does job security look like for me? America is on the brink of massive change, change that will disrupt the workings of our economy and drastically impact the financial backbone of our nation, the middle class. In Adrift, Galloway looks to the past, from 1945 to present day, to explain just how America arrived at this precipice. Telling the story of our nation through 100 charts, Galloway demonstrates how crises such as Jim Crow, World War II, and the Stock Market Crash of 2008, as well as the escalating power of technology, an entrenched white patriarchy, and the socio-economic effects of the pandemic created today's perfect storm. Adrift attempts to make sense of it all and offers Galloway's unique take on where we're headed and who we ll become touching on topics as wide ranging as online dating to minimum wage to the American dream

Just as in 1945 and 1980 America is once again a nation at a crossroads This time what will it take for our nation to keep up with the fast and violent changes to our new world
