Successes in Agricultural Development David J. Spielman, Rajul Pandya-Lorch, 2010-01-01 The world has made enormous progress in the past 50 years toward eliminating hunger and malnutrition While in 1960 roughly 30 percent of the world's population suffered from hunger and malnutrition today less than 20 percent do some five billion people now have enough food to live healthy productive lives Agricultural development has contributed significantly to these gains by increasing food supplies reducing food prices and creating new income and employment opportunities for some of the world's poorest people This book examines where why and how past interventions in agricultural development have succeeded It carefully reviews the policies programs and investments in agricultural development that have reduced hunger and poverty across Africa Asia and Latin America over the past half century The 19 successes included here are described in in depth case studies that synthesize the evidence on the intervention's impact on agricultural productivity and food security evaluate the rigor with which the evidence was collected and assess the tradeoffs inherent in each success Together these chapters provide evidence of what works in agricultural development

Root, Tuber and Banana Food System Innovations Graham Thiele, Michael Friedmann, Hugo Campos, Vivian Polar, Jeffery W. Bentley, 2022-04-06 This open access book describes recent innovations in food systems based on root tuber and banana crops in developing countries These innovations respond to many of the challenges facing these vital crops linked to their vegetative seed and bulky and perishable produce The innovations create value food jobs and new sources of income while improving the wellbeing and quality of life of their users Women are often key players in the production processing and marketing of roots tubers and bananas so successful innovation needs to consider gender These crops and their value chains have long been neglected by research and development hence this book contributes to filling in the gap The book features many outcomes of the CGIAR Research Program in Roots Tubers and

Banana RTB which operated from 2012-21 encompassing many tropical countries academic and industry partners multiple crops and major initiatives It describes the successful innovation model developed by RTB that brings together diverse partners and organizations to create value for the end users and to generate positive economic and social outcomes RTB has accelerated the scaling of innovations to reach many end users cost effectively Though most of the book's examples and insights are from Africa they can be applied worldwide The book will be useful for decision makers designing policies to scale up agricultural solutions for researchers and extension specialists seeking practical ideas and for scholars of innovation

Enhancing Food Security and Trade Resilience in Sustainable Agricultural Systems Wenjin Long,, Catherine Keske, Fuyou Guo, 2025-10-23 Food security is a critical global challenge influenced by complex interactions between agriculture trade and market dynamics As countries navigate the impacts of climate change and economic fluctuations sustainable agricultural practices become essential for ensuring a stable food supply International trade agreements such as the China Pakistan Free Trade Agreement and the pathways established by the Belt and Road Initiative significantly shape domestic agricultural economies Understanding how these agreements affect food access sovereignty and production sustainability is crucial for developing resilient food systems Despite the recognised importance of these interconnections there is limited research that comprehensively examines the interplay between trade policies and sustainable agricultural practices in supporting food security Many existing studies focus on individual aspects neglecting the integrated nature of these systems This Research Topic aims to fill this gap by exploring how trade dynamics local agricultural strategies and policy frameworks can enhance food security and resilience By synthesising diverse case studies and analyses we aim to identify best practices and effective pathways to strengthen both trade and local agricultural sustainability in various contexts Africa Diary, 1972 African Recorder, 1972 The Commonwealth Yearbook Great Britain. Foreign and Commonwealth Office, 1999 Trends and Prospects for Cassava in the Developing World J. S.
