Undergraduate Module Outline

Department of Education studies
Education in society
EDU111
First Semester of 2020

Part A. General Information

Welcome to EDU111 which is aimed at introducing the B.Ed (Senior Phase and FET) teachers to the key aspects of the history of education in the South African context and writings of the main philosophers that influenced the sociology of education. It will particularly introduce you to the social and political contexts and explore how these classic theories can help us explain current social phenomena in Education. Lastly, the course will interrogate the ideas of the classical theorists in light of contemporary concepts and issues in both the African and global perspective.
