crackling before us had once been a small tree and how it had grown taller each year until its head was higher than the house and its branches were laden with fruit But it grew too old at last to bear well so it had to be cut down to make room for younger trees Its work was not done however Just now it is giving us warmth and making the room glow with light Then its white ashes will be spread about the rose bushes and next year they will have become part of a beautiful blossom A look of wonder at the revelation of Nature s perpetuation came into the deep blue eyes Longfellow says There is no death what seems so is transition and to me this giving taking and returning by Nature is one of the grandest things in the world He who is near to Nature s heart is very near his Creator It is the love of all that is outdoors and Dame Experience s sharp but unforgettable lessons together with the many things we have learned from books and friends that have made it possible for us to write this volume May it make warm friends and help others to enjoy their garden more than ever before It has been our earnest effort to tell the simple necessary things leaving the deep and scientific parts to those who make such things their life study I trust however that we have left out no links in the chain of the plants life history About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
