Emotion Charades

Create a list of emotions (happy, sad, angry, surprised, etc.), and have children take turns acting out the emotions without using any words while the others guess what emotion they are representing.

Feelings Thermometer

Create a visual "feelings thermometer" with a range of emotions from calm to extremely upset. Children can point to where they currently fall on the thermometer to express how they are feeling, facilitating self-regulation and emotional awareness.

Teach children calming strategies such as counting to ten, taking deep breaths, or using positive self-talk to cope with intense emotions and regulate their emotional responses in challenging situations.
