Memory and Peace Francis Anekwe Oborji, 2020-11-11 The Latin adage Si vis pacem para bellum if you want peace prepare for war is usually interpreted as peace through strength It expresses the idea that being armed and ready to fight in order to defend oneself is a viable way of keeping the peace However the truism of the adage is expressed by the author who argues for peace and sustainable development of Africa at large in the light of the Nigerian Biafra struggle He intellectually equips readers with memories of the past lest the mistakes of history be repeated The author uses the power of the pen as a weapon mightier than the sword to discuss the structures of peace in the African context He weighs in a balance the need for restructuring and the right for self determination the way to freedom and collective effort towards development This volume contains articles that propose potential and functional solutions to the perennial challenges presently facing Nigeria as a country Interestingly the reflections recommend steps towards cordial reconciliation and the liberating spirit that would catalyze the restoration of an emerging nation the Republic of Biafra The volume further expands the ongoing ideas and thoughts on a variety of issues that offer roadmaps to the contextual problems of the indigenous people as well as the Christian Mission and evangelical witness Furthermore the author goes on to demonstrate that when dialogue is employed peace makes its way in the hearts of the citizens which ushers in the flourishing of good governance and economic growth Hence justice equity peace equal rights and opportunity become the bedrock upon which every nation state is supposed to be founded
