

REPORTE DE CASOS

Coexistencia de Enfermedad Celíaca y Hepatitis Autoinmune. Reporte de un caso y revisión de la literatura

Martín Tagle*, Cecilia Nolte¹, Eduardo Luna, Yolanda Scavino.

RESUMEN

Reportamos el caso de una paciente en quien se hizo inicialmente un diagnóstico de Lupus Eritematoso Sistémico documentándose posteriormente enfermedad Celíaca serológica e histológicamente. La paciente presentó elevación de aminotransferasas que una vez detectada la enfermedad celíaca se pensó que podía ser atribuible a su enfermedad de fondo. Sin embargo si bien los trastornos articulares desaparecieron por completo con la dieta libre de gluten, las anomalías de bioquímica hepática persistieron. Esto llevó a la consideración de hepatitis autoinmune que se documentó mediante biopsia hepática a los tres meses del diagnóstico de enfermedad celíaca y estricta dieta libre de gluten. Se inició tratamiento con Prednisona y Azatioprina con lo cual las aminotransferasas se normalizaron completamente. Presentamos aquí la secuencia de hechos con sus resultados y una revisión de la literatura.

PALABRAS CLAVE: Enfermedad celíaca, hepatitis autoinmune.

SUMMARY

The case of a patient who was initially diagnosed with Systemic Lupus Erythematosus, with subsequent documentation of Celiac Disease histologically and serologically is reported. The patient presented elevation of the aminotransferases, upon detection of the Celiac Disease which was initially attributed to the underlying disease. However, despite the complete resolution of her articular symptoms with a gluten-free diet, the liver chemistry abnormalities persisted. This led to consider an autoimmune hepatitis as the cause which was documented with a liver biopsy three months after the diagnosis of the celiac disease and under a strict gluten-free diet. Treatment with prednisone and azathioprine was initiated with complete normalization of aminotransferase levels. We present the sequence of events with the results and a review of the literature.

KEY WORDS: Celiac disease, autoimmune hepatitis.
