Signs of Change

1. Jason knelt and examined the winter grass on the baseball field. Yes, there it was, a small strand of green mixed with the yellow and brown blades. He reached out and lightly touched it. Finally, the first signs that spring had arrived. He gazed out at the field, his eyes gravitating to the spot where his team's season had ended last year. It was his spot, second base.
2. Jason could almost hear the slap of leather from baseballs popping into gloves as he remembered warming up with his teammates for the big playoff game. The stands behind him had been a sea of parents, teachers, and fellow students. They were there to watch the Northglenn Knights take on the West Hills Hornets. The winner would play for the city's Junior League Championship. The buzz of the crowd and the chatter of the players filled the air, putting a bounce in everyone's step. Jason felt wonderful, joking with his teammates, waving at people in the crowd. He was even bantering lightheartedly with the other team, keeping up small talk. As usual, he was generally clowning around, going through the warm-up drills at half-speed, showing off by making catches behind his back and flipping balls to his teammates.
3. "Knock it off, Jason," Coach Fowler warned. As usual, Jason paid little attention. He was the Knights' best player and knew Coach wouldn't put him on the bench in a playoff game. Besides, it had been that way all season. Jason didn't really do anything wrong; he just didn't try as hard as the other players. He didn't need to try because he had what the coach called "natural talent."
