Global Trend Gothic Fantasy:

Hebrew Gothic Karen Grumberg, 2019-09-01 Makes a persuasive argument that gothic ideas play a vital role in how Hebrew writers have confronted history culture and politics Robert Alter author of Hebrew and Modernity Sinister tales written since the early twentieth century by the foremost Hebrew authors including S Y Agnon Leah Goldberg and Amos Oz reveal a darkness at the foundation of Hebrew culture The ghosts of a murdered Talmud scholar and his kidnapped bride rise from their graves for a nocturnal dance of death a girl hidden by a count in a secret chamber of an Eastern European castle emerges to find that unbeknownst to her World War II ended years earlier a man recounts the act of incest that would shape a trajectory of personal and national history Reading these works together with central British and American gothic texts Karen Grumberg illustrates that modern Hebrew literature has regularly appropriated key gothic ideas to help conceptualize the Jewish relationship to the past and more broadly to time She explores why these authors were drawn to the gothic originally a European mode associated with antisemitism and how they use it to challenge assumptions about power and powerlessness vulnerability and violence and to shape modern Hebrew culture Grumberg provides an original perspective on Hebrew literary engagement with history and sheds new light on the tensions that continue to characterize contemporary Israeli cultural and political rhetoric

Terrorism in Literature Bootheina Majoul, 2019-08-13 This volume celebrates literature as a strong subversive tool as an alternative for change through an exploration of terrorism in various literary works It brings together scholars from all over the world including Algeria Argentina Australia Cameroon Denmark India Italy Tunisia Turkey and the USA to offer their insights As readers themselves they share an eagerness to understand the psychopathological personalities circulating among us They urge the reader to dig deep into literature to think to cogitate and to learn One of the most important literary figures dealing with terrorism in his novels is the internationally acclaimed Indian writer Tabish Khair who generously wrote the foreword to this volume He sheds light on the possibilities offered by literature as a means of dissent and a powerful tool for truth telling

Children, Youth, and International Television Debbie Olson, Adrian Schober, 2022-03-29 This volume explores how television has been a significant conduit for the public consumption of changing ideas about children childhood and national identity via a critical examination of programs that prominently feature children and youth in international television The chapters connect relevant cultural attitudes within their respective countries to an analysis of children and or childhood in international children s programming The collection addresses how international children s programming in global and local context informs changing ideas about children and childhood including notions of individual and citizen identity formation Offering new insights into childhood and television studies this book will be of great interest to graduate students scholars and professionals in television studies childhood studies media studies cultural studies popular culture studies and American studies

Working Title Films Nathan Townsend,2021-04-28 Working Title Films is arguably the most important production company in the history of British cinema This wide ranging book charts the creative and commercial history of Working Title from its origins as an independent in the 1980s to its integration into PolyGram Filmed Entertainment in the 1990s and to its current status as a subsidiary of Universal since the 2000s In doing so the relationship between the film industries and cultures of Britain and Hollywood is examined through a consideration of the industrial structures processes and practices which have defined the operation of the company Moreover it considers the ways in which these industrial transitions have produced distinct versions of Britain and Britishness onscreen ranging from My Beautiful Laundrette and Wish You Were Here to Four Weddings and a Funeral and Notting Hill and from

Johnny English and Nanny McPhee to The Theory of Everything and Yesterday Drawing on over 30 interviews with key personnel from Working Title PolyGram Filmed Entertainment and Universal the author examines not only how this remarkable company has evolved but also why it has evolved in the way that it has by situating its history within the ever changing landscapes of the British and Hollywood film industries The Journal of English and Germanic Philology ,1947

Factsheet Five ,1994 Representing Ireland Frank Beardow,Alison O'Malley-Younger,2005 Trends in Contemporary Italian Narrative, 1980-2007 Gillian Ania,Ann Caesar,2007 The new Italian narrative TM that began to be spoken about in the 1980s was not associated with a single writer or movement but with an eclectic and varied production The eight essays that make up this volume set out to give a flavour of the breadth and range of recent trends and developments The collection opens with two essays on crime fiction In the first Luca Somigli examines novels dealing with topical issues or recent history and which reveal a strong indigenous and regional tradition while in the second Nicoletta McGowan discusses the particular case of a noir by Claudia Salvatori They are followed by essays on two of Italy TM s best known contemporary writers Marina Spunta TM s essay explores the representation of space place and landscape in the work of Gianni Celati and photographer Luigi Ghirri while Darrell O TM Connell analyses the fiction of Vincenzo Consolo and his struggle to find a means of representing an ethical stance within fiction Two essays then examine the role of the anthology for young writers Charlotte Ross and Derek Duncan in the context of lesbian and gay writing looking at identity politics and the problematics of categorization Monica Jansen and Inge Lanslots in that of the oeYoung Cannibals and their often unsettling non literary language and orientation towards cinema pop music and slang The penultimate essay by Jennifer Burns discusses the literature of migrants to Italy focusing on questions of identity memory mobility and language while the final contribution by Gillian Ania is a study of apocalypse and dystopia in contemporary writing looking at novels by Vassalli Capriolo Avoledo and Pispisa This volume examines Italian narrative from the 1980s to the present from the original viewpoint of genres categories trends rather than author based analyses It highlights the innovations of the last twenty years incorporating into the various themes well known writers like Consolo Celati and Vassalli with relative newcomers like Avoledo and Pispisa The contributors to the volume academics from the UK Ireland Canada Belgium cover a wide range of themes which have come to the fore during this period ranging from detective stories both the giallo and the noir to lesbian and gay writing to immigration literature in Italian to the study of apocalypse and dystopia The themes are contextualized in the socio political and cultural changes taking place in Italy and parallel to this the temporal moments of the narratives are in turn related to their historical realities This is a richly woven account which presents post 80s Italian narrative from a new and stimulating angle in eight lucid and informative essays which will be welcomed by all those interested in contemporary fiction in its cultural context Professor Anna Laura Lepschy Department of Italian University College London Cyberpunk and Cyberculture Dani Cavallaro,2000 This text explores and analyses the work of a wide range of writers setting their work in the context of science fiction other literary genres genre cinema and contemporary work on the culture of technology
