Frank, 1988 Walford's Guide to Reference Material: Generalia, language and literature, the arts Albert John Walford, 1998 From its first edition the purpose of Walford has been to identify and evaluate the widest possible range of reference materials No rigid definition of reference is applied In addition to the expected bibliographies indexes dictionaries encyclopaedias and directories a number of important textbooks and manuals of general practice are included While the majority of the items are books Walford is a guide to reference material Thus periodical articles microforms online and CD ROM sources are all represented In this volume a particular effort has been made to improve coverage of the latter two categories

Science Fiction and Fantasy Book Review Neil Barron,R. Reginald,2009-11-01 Science Fiction Fantasy Book Review was founded in 1979 to provide comprehensive coverage of all the major and minor books being released in the genre at that time This was the golden era of SF publishing with a thousand titles old and new hitting the stands and the bookshelves each and every year From the older classics to the newest speculative fiction this was the period when the best and the brightest shined forth their talents SF FBR included reviews by writers in the field by amateur critics and by litterateurs and University professors Over a thousand books were covered during the single year of publication many of them having been reviewed no where else before or since The January 1980 issue includes a comprehensive index of all the works featured during the preceding year This reprint will be a welcome addition to the literature of science fiction and fantasy criticism Neil Barron is a retired bibliographer and literary critic editor of the acclaimed Anatomy of Wonder series Robert Reginald was the publisher for twenty five years of Borgo Press and has authored over 110 books of his own

Cognitive Grammar in Contemporary Fiction Chloe Harrison,2017-05-24 This book proposes an extension of Cognitive Grammar Langacker 1987 1991 2008 towards a cognitive discourse grammar through the unique environment that literary stylistic application offers Drawing upon contemporary research in cognitive stylistics Text World Theory deixis and mind modelling amongst others the volume scales up central Cognitive Grammar concepts such as construal grounding the reference point model and action chains in order to explore the attenuation of experience and how it is simulated in literary reading In particular it considers a range of contemporary texts by Neil Gaiman Jennifer Egan Jonathan Safran Foer Ian McEwan and Paul Auster This application builds upon previous work that adopts Cognitive Grammar for literary analysis and provides the first extended account of Cognitive Grammar in contemporary fiction
