

Astronomy Ranking Task: Doppler Shift

Question # 1

Scenario: The figure below shows a radio telescope pointed the right way according to Earth. Three persons are shown at locations A, B, and C. Assume that all three people view from the same (horizontal) line.

1. Ranking Question: Rank the observed wavelengths (shortest wavelength and longest wavelength) received from the star (as measured on Earth) by participants A, B, and C.

Ranking Order: longest λ to shortest λ (A, B, C)

(If the participants observe the same wavelength, write "same" in the space with their name.)

Essentialy explain your reasoning for ranking this way.

Participant A is closest to the telescope that points the right way toward the star. The frequency of the waves from the star is highest because the distance is the shortest. The frequency of the waves from the star is lower as the distance is longer. The frequency of the waves from the star is the lowest because the distance is the longest. Participant B is in the middle. Participant C is the furthest from the telescope that points the right way.
