Intermediate Workbook with Key, 2025-01-23 Materials Evaluation and Design for Language Teaching Ian McGrath, 2016-07-11 Teaching materials play a crucial role in teaching learning When these take the form of a textbook it is essential that it is carefully selected to meet both external requirements and the needs of the teachers as well as allowing teacher to mediate between the textbook and the learners adapting and supplementing the book as necessary Providing a systematic approach to the selection and subsequent evaluation of coursebooks this textbook gives practical advice on adaptation and supplementation and beyond Suggestions on systematising the process of materials development and on the use of learner generated materials are included for teachers who prefer to prepare their own materials With integrated and wide ranging coverage of the topic this is the ideal book for those studying or practising language teaching or applied linguistics Key Features Numerous examples Interleaved tasks which can be utilised by an instructor Extensive bibliography

Applied Linguistics and Materials Development Brian Tomlinson, 2012-12-06 Focuses for the first time on materials development and applications of current research and theory for the main areas of applied linguistics e.g. second language acquisition pragmatics vocabulary studies There are many books on applied linguistic theory and research and there are now a number of books on the principled development of materials for language learning but this book takes a new approach by connecting the two concerns Each of its chapters first of all presents relevant theories and research conclusions for its area and then considers practical applications for materials development The chapters achieve these applications by reporting and commenting on current theory and research by analysing the match between current published materials and current theory and by suggesting and exemplifying applications of current theory to materials development This will be an essential resource both for those studying or teaching materials development and for those studying or teaching applied linguistics
