In this activist participatory study you'll get a day in the life look at 44 pairs of cross sexual men's friendships and see what helps them negotiate the terrain of their emotional, sexual, psychological, and social differences in today's climate of often publicly defended homophobia and heterosexism. Navigating Differences succeeds in bringing the true picture of cross sexual men's relationships to you regardless of your personal orientation or political affiliation. You'll find information straight from the lives of the study's participants that shows you how different sexual orientations impact the way men spend time together, maintain friendships, cope with sexual struggles, and open good communication channels. Most importantly you'll get detailed facts and feedback concerning hegemonic masculinity, embracing, struggling with, and ignoring differences, group demographic characteristics, embeddedness, and emotional communication, outness in groups, out groups, and reference groups. Hearsay and prejudice might claim to know what gay and straight men think of each other, but Navigating Differences replaces rumors with research and shows you what really keeps gay and straight men in lasting friendships in all arenas of life. You'll learn firsthand what it takes to overcome differences and what it means to turn difference into meaningful relationships.

Grace Meets Grit Daina Middleton, 2016-10-14 There is no mistaking that inequality in the workplace is still prevalent in the form of salary inequity and unequal representation in leadership and board positions Too often conversations about inequality can lead to men and women believing they are alike Women and men are not the same biologically or psychologically and these differences lead to significant dissimilarities in how each approaches leadership situations Grace Meets Grit navigates the previously unexplored subject of gender differences in the workplace specifically applied to critical leadership behaviors Leadership behaviors are what make us all successful in the workplace They are how we are evaluated against our peers and what we use to solve problems when working in teams We also know that the most effective organizations work diligently to optimize these leadership behaviors Through stories of extraordinary courageous women Grace Meets Grit shows how to compensate for your innate style by dialing up leadership qualities you may not naturally possess Middleton empowers women in particular to embrace their innate qualities and anticipate and apply behaviors expected of their male counterparts to help level the playing field The end result is fewer misunderstandings in the workplace and higher performance from both individual leaders and teams
