

Chapter 3 In the Garden

L. 1-3 In...sunt.

In the picture is a Roman boy, named Marcus, who lives in the country house and farm. Also in the picture is another boy, named Sextus, who lives in the same country house and farm. Marcus and Sextus are friends. Today the boys are shouting and laughing in the garden because they are happy.

L. 4-7 Vir...currunt.

A man named Davus, who is a slave, also is in the picture. In Italy there are many slaves who labor in the fields and country houses and farms. The boys are Romans, but Davus is not a Roman. He is a British man who now labors in Italy. Sextus and Marcus, because they are Roman boys, do not labor. Davus alone works, angry because the boys shout and run in the garden.¹

L. 8-9 Subito...gemit.

Suddenly a statue falls into the fish pond. Sextus laughs. Marcus also laughs, but Davus shouts, "Go away, you pests!" and angry he runs toward the fish pond². The boys run out of the garden. Davus groans.

¹ In Latin adjectives are often used where in English we would use an adverb; you may translate these adjectives as adverbs. Davus angrily works alone.

² He angrily runs toward the fish pond.
