

Jazz Piano Etude 1

Milan Dvorak

打谱: 宋子龍

Medium tempo

The first system of the etude consists of two staves. The right hand plays a series of chords in a descending sequence, while the left hand provides a steady accompaniment of chords. The key signature is two flats (Bb and Eb), and the time signature is common time (C).

The second system continues the piece. The right hand features a melodic line with eighth notes and quarter notes, often with accents. The left hand continues with a consistent harmonic accompaniment. The key signature and time signature remain the same.

The third system shows the right hand playing a more active melodic line with eighth notes and quarter notes. The left hand accompaniment includes some syncopated rhythms. The key signature and time signature are consistent.

The fourth system features a melodic line in the right hand with various articulations and dynamics. The left hand accompaniment includes a 'cresc.' (crescendo) marking. The key signature and time signature are consistent.

The fifth system concludes the etude. The right hand has a melodic line with some syncopation. The left hand accompaniment includes a 'cresc.' marking. The key signature and time signature are consistent.

When we mastered this one technically, we try to learn the mechanical tempo without acceleration (positive, negative). All syncopated notes we will accentuate a bit.
