Human Development and Faith (Second Edition) Felicity B. Kelcourse, 2015-07-28 This book now in its second edition brings together the best available understandings of human development from a multidisciplinary perspective Uniquely inclusive of the moral and faith dimensions of context and life cycle development Human Development and Faith examines the interplay of mind body family community and soul at every stage of development It addresses two central questions What are the good enough conditions of parenting family and community in each phase of life from birth to death which support growth and development What gives life adequate meaning as development proceeds If human development describes the normative and hoped for passages of life then faith provides the necessary component of meaning Throughout the various perspectives offered in this volume is the premise that faith is that quality of living that makes it possible to fully live The Journal of Pastoral Theology called the first edition of Human Development and Faith an excellent text for pastoral theology courses because it fulfills its ambitious goal of bringing a holistic faith perspective to the usual topics of development This second edition includes a new chapter on infancy updates reflecting our growing awareness of cultural diversity and a new preface

Economic Foundations for Creative Ageing Policy Andrzej Klimczuk, 2015-08-12 Ageing populations are a major consideration for socio economic development in the early twenty first century This demographic change is mainly seen as a threat rather than as an opportunity to improve the quality of human life especially in Europe where ageing has resulted in a reduction in economic competitiveness Economic Foundations for Creative Ageing Policy mixes the silver economy the creative economy and the social economy to construct positive solutions for an ageing population Klimczuk covers theoretical analyses and case study descriptions of good practices to suggest strategies that could be internationally popularized
