

Harvard Case Study Format for Write-up

1. Immediate Issue(s) or Problem(s):

Define the immediate problem(s) or identify the decision(s) that must be made. State a time frame S-M-A-R-T: how long do you have to make the decision? The problem is stated in a form of a question, relative actions to take D-M-P, M-A-P, R-M-P, I-I-I, A-D-K-A-R, A-I-D-A.

2. Basic Issue(s) or Associated Issue(s):

List any other issue that might influence your decision. These can be within the 3 levels of the organization, top-middle-lower levels from corporate strategic, executive and operative issues. S-W-O-T, P-E-S-T-L-E, 5M's, 4P's & other unseen fortuitous business experiences are normally associated.

3. Issue(s) Analysis or Information Summary:

Summarize the important or major pieces of information from the case. Identify which are the facts, opinions and assumptions. State your assumptions clearly. Analyze among of the M's (man-machine-money-materials-methods) of business management that were affected. Relative to each functions marketing, finance, production, human resource, and logistics internal and external areas of considerations. Detailing every information made available in the case; operations is an essential part of your analysis. Identify any short or long term issues to each objective & goals.

Assumptions can be projected and stated if data or information are not available in reaching for a valid discretion. Utilizing the Porter's 5 forces ANSOFF, BAFF, Standard Causal, SCOR or PERT CPM matrix model.

4. Alternative Solutions or Options: The most important part!

List the various options available to resolve the problem. Discuss each option and state the advantages (pro) and disadvantages (cons) of each option. Refer to quantitative and/or qualitative information as needed in order to demonstrate the points raised. This is the major part of the case and demonstrates that you clearly understand the issue(s) and the various possible outcomes. There are usually at least three good options in a case and often many more. Identify each option clearly and always show the pros and cons of each.

I have authored the model P-R-O approach which enumerating the pessimistic-realistic-optimistic alternative course of actions, this way ensuring the best way to distinguish the best possible solution to the problem.

5. Recommendation(s) and Implementation:

Based on the analysis of the options, the absolute best possible solution is coming from your Realistic Options as stated. State what you would do to correct the problem (recommendation) and how you would do this (implementation). Your recommendation is usually a restatement of the best option among the Realistic options of selection. This is not the time to analyze new options. The implementation plan should list the steps and include a time frame or target date.

6. Monitor and Control:

State the method(s) you will use to determine if your recommendation and implementation plan are working. Some examples are use of budgets, regularly scheduled meetings or scheduled reviews. The approach you use will depend on the nature of the recommendation.

Rules & regulations, policy changes to update and reform in exercising thorough diligence in the performance of its measures and resolutions to the problem. Conclusive itemized do's & don'ts as the bible/standardized guidelines to carry out to the benefit of the organization.

Functions or reforms to undertake in order the same problem will not happen again.

powerful method for businesses transformation Behind this method is a deceptively simple idea managers and management scholars must first take the pulse of a real business get its case history diagnose its problems and only then solve them Invented by the scholars who launched Harvard Business School this medical model will still cure companies today Damningly during the last thirty years business schools embraced the presumptions of economists game theorists and other calculators of abstraction The solving of real world real time problems has atrophied and stagnated In this book renowned scholar and emeritus professor Jay W Lorsch marshals evidence history and insights from his more than fifty year career at Harvard Business School to make the case for a return to the medical model the practices of listening observing and testing in which the fields of human relations and organizational behavior are rooted By telling the history of the development of his field Lorsch demonstrates how the medical model emerged in the years before World War II and for decades helped managers management scholars and consultants diagnose and solve the problems besetting companies large and small Explaining the case studies that define the practice he discusses how the model has been refined and reapplied by later generations and how it can continue to address issues such as diversity leadership competition and optimal corporate board structures

An Insider Perspective on Implementing the Harvard Case Study Method in Business Teaching Karim S. Rebeiz,2011 This paper provides practical guidance on the implementation of the CSM case study method using the HBS Harvard Business School model The analysis is based on the first hand experience of the author as a user and implementer of this mode of instruction The results are further validated with surveys given to MBA Master of Business Administration students and interviews given to HBS faculty members The idea behind the CSM is to simulate a real case business scenario with the surrounding facts and constraints As it is the case in the real world the students operate in an environment in which they assume the role of managers who maneuver under pressure and make decisions with the understanding that their decisions could result in irreversible consequences Ultimately the HBS method intends to condition the students to become future managers through the acquisition of a combination of functional skills e g strategic management skills conceptual skills e g decision making skills interpersonal skills e g teamwork skills and leadership skills e g communication skills
