REA's book is a concise, easy-to-use guide to the literary terms and devices which high school and undergraduate students encounter most often. The main body of the book is an alphabetical listing of approximately 150 of the most commonly encountered literary terms or devices. The entries are simplified to enable students with no knowledge of the terms to become comfortable with their uses in a short time. Each entry in the book includes a definition of the literary term or device, a history of the term's use and origin, and specific references to texts in which the term has been used. A Multicultural Dictionary of Literary Terms Gary Carey, Mary Ellen Snodgrass, 2024-10-14 What is a corrido? What is the difference between a tanka, a choka, and a renga? What does it mean when you're doing the dozens? What is a Bildungsroman? This dictionary of literary terms provides the student, scholar, librarian, or researcher with definitions, explanations, and models of the styles and forms of works of literature. Along with novel, tone, tragedy, and scansion are haiku, noh, griot, and other terms that derive from works long undervalued by the literary world. The examples come from a very broad field of authors, reflecting a spirit of inclusion of all people, races, and literary traditions. The editors have elected to quote from literary examples that students are likely to have read and to which they most readily relate. For instance, Angelou's "I Know Why the Caged Bird Sings" was preferred over a work such as Paradise Lost, which fewer students have read and understand. Included is a listing of poets laureate, the Library of Congress literature winners, the Pulitzer and Nobel prizes, Booker McConnell Prize winners, a time line of world literature, and an index.
